

Villa Negroni

Region: Brac    Sleeps: 14

Overview

Sitting on a cliffside overlooking the glistening Adriatic Sea, Villa Negroni is a luxurious base for exploring the Croatian island of Brac. The house offers seven incredible bedrooms, so can sleep 14 guests in comfort.

Villa Negroni, a stunning four-floor residence, gracefully perches at the water's edge, designed to showcase the breathtaking sea views that envelop the entire home and garden. The heart of this captivating abode resides on the ground floor, where a spacious living room unfolds, featuring various sofas, armchairs, and a TV. Flowing seamlessly from this space is a splendid dining room with vaulted ceilings and a chic glass dining table connecting to the enchanting garden.

The adjacent kitchen, fully equipped with essential appliances, including a coffee machine, caters to all culinary needs. Spread across the home, the seven bedrooms offer diverse accommodations. The lower ground floor provides a secluded haven with a double bedroom, bathroom, and a convenient kitchenette, an ideal retreat for couples seeking privacy. Ascending to the mezzanine level reveals the master suite, boasting a king-sized bed, terrace access, sofas, and an opulent bathroom with a freestanding bath. Adjacent to this retreat, a twin room with a terrace and en-suite bathroom provides a tranquil escape. The remaining four bedrooms are set on the first floor. All are charming doubles, and each features a private shower room, ensuring a restful night's sleep accompanied by the soothing sounds of crashing waves.

Stepping outdoors, the landscaped garden beckons with covered dining and lounge spaces, a private pool, and, above all, uninterrupted vistas of the mesmerising sea. Villa Negroni promises a luxurious and idyllic retreat, where the fusion of contemporary living and coastal beauty creates an enchanting haven for an unforgettable holiday.

If you are looking for a serene location for your holiday to Brac island in Croatia, Villa Negroni offers a wonderful setting. With beaches, and a couple restaurants within walking distance, you have everything you need nearby.

The town of Sumartin is just 4km away, too, and offers shops, supermarkets, eateries and bars. You can also visit the gorgeous Zora Beach, a hidden cove that is often very quiet.

Location & Local Information

If you are planning this year's summer holiday, why not try an enchanting Croatian escape to the picturesque island of Brac, where Villa Negroni offers you a splendid seaside retreat. Overlooking the azure waters of the Adriatic, this charming villa provides a serene haven for those seeking a coastal getaway.

Nestled just steps away from the nearest beach, Villa Negroni is surrounded by scenic beauty and convenient amenities. Wander along the shoreline to discover more charming beaches, each adorned with its unique character, accompanied by a scattering of welcoming bars and restaurants. For a sublime beach experience, venture 4km to Zora Beach. This coastal gem boasts a postcard-worthy cove with a backdrop of majestic mountains, offering sandy and pebbled areas along with calm waters for a leisurely swim.

A must-visit destination is Zlatni Rat, or Golden Horn Beach, located 28km away by car. Renowned as one of Croatia's most iconic landmarks, this unique beach features a distinctive horn-shaped peninsula that shifts with the changing tides, creating a mesmerising sight.

When you crave a taste of local life, the charming town of Sumartin awaits just 4km away. Delight in the authentic atmosphere, explore quaint streets, and savour delicious cuisine in this coastal town. There is plenty to see and do here, including beaches, the idyllic marina, exploring the Franciscan Monastery and walks in the nearby Biokovo Nature Park.

For a more extensive town experience, set your sights on Supetar, the island's capital, situated 40km away. This vibrant destination promises a day filled with exploration, offering a blend of historic charm, cultural attractions, and bustling markets. Stroll through Supetar's charming streets, visit local shops, and sample traditional Croatian delicacies in the town's inviting eateries. The town has a great range of attractions, such as the ornate Church of the Annunciation and the Roman Quarries.

Whether you seek serene beach days, picturesque landscapes, or cultural excursions, a holiday in Brac, anchored by the sea-view elegance of Villa Negroni, promises a perfect blend of relaxation and adventure on one of Croatia’s most captivating islands.
