

Apartment Thonon

Region: Portes du Soleil Sleeps: 9

Overview

Sleeping up to nine guests, Apartment Thonon is a spacious and modern apartment in the centre of Morzine in the French Alps. From your base here, you can easily access the slopes and enjoy the countless Après-ski opportunities.

As you step into the welcoming embrace of Apartment Thonon, you will find a harmonious blend of modernity and cozy Alpine charm. The apartment emanates a friendly atmosphere, characterized by modern decor and cosy soft furnishings that strike a perfect equilibrium between contemporary design and snug comfort. This newly designed residence is meticulously equipped with all the essentials for a laid-back retreat, featuring modern amenities such as flatscreen TVs, a coffee machine, and Wi-Fi, ensuring convenience at your fingertips. To enhance your winter sports experience, the apartment even offers a dedicated private ski locker.

Ideal for a group of nine guests, the inviting living room beckons with its spacious ambiance, featuring a large sofa, TV, and access to a balcony framing stunning Alpine views. The open-plan kitchen and dining area, equipped with all the necessary appliances, provide a practical and stylish setting for communal meals, centred around a table that comfortably seats eight. If you would prefer, you are able to book a private chef for a special meal or even for half-board catering.

As the night descends, four beautiful bedrooms await, each promising a serene retreat. Three bedrooms feature a double bed and an en-suite bathroom equipped with a shower, sink, and WC. The fourth bedroom mirrors the others but also includes a single bed, perfect for a child. All bedrooms exude cleanliness and spaciousness, adorned with crisp white linen for a refreshing touch.

Within the premises, guests are treated to a touch of opulence with access to an impressive gym and a wellness area boasting a sauna, jacuzzi, and steam room.

When you wish to shop for groceries or enjoy your morning coffee in a quaint café looking out over the mountains, you can stroll to the nearest amenities from the apartment. Morzine is a good-sized town offering all you could need during your trip, if you do not wish to drive anywhere you do not have to.

In addition to fantastic ski slopes and ski lessons, you can snowboard, ice skate and enjoy a wide range of none ski-related activities too such as visiting local spas, ice-skating or even swimming in a tropical themed water park.

Whilst staying here, you can also drive out to some incredible towns and cities such as Geneva, Chamonix and Annecy so that you can also indulge in some shopping, art and culture.

The chalet is available year-round, but facilities, property and local amenities may vary depending upon season.

Location & Local Information

Embarking on a journey to the French Alps ensures an invigorating fusion of awe-inspiring mountain landscapes, top-tier skiing, and captivating Alpine villages. Tucked away in the enchanting town of Morzine, Apartment Thonon serves as an idyllic retreat within the famous Portes du Soleil ski area, ensuring an unforgettable winter escape.

Morzine, characterized by its quintessential Alpine allure, stands out for its seamless access to ski slopes suitable for all skill levels. Whether ascending with ski lifts or opting for lessons with knowledgeable instructors, the town caters to diverse skiing preferences. Morzine's lively atmosphere also extends beyond the slopes, offering a variety of non-skiing activities. After an adventurous day, the local cinema provides a snug setting for relaxation. Cobblestone streets adorned with charming shops, cafes, and restaurants beckon for leisurely strolls and cultural exploration.

Morzine is just one of many villages and towns you can visit in this area. A 37km jaunt from Morzine, leads to Châtel, a picturesque village on the Swiss border. Châtel exudes its own unique charm due to the mix of French and Swiss cultures and cuisines. The drive to Châtel itself unfolds as a scenic journey, treating travellers to panoramic views of the alpine landscapes. Once there, you can ski on the unspoilt slopes and explore this idyllic, authentic farming village.

If you wish to see more of the region, you can explore day-trip destinations such as Chamonix and Geneva. Chamonix is positioned less than 70km away and is celebrated for its dramatic peaks, notably the iconic Mont Blanc. Visitors can relish the town's beauty, partake in winter sports, or ascend a cable car for sweeping views of the Alps. Geneva, with its cosmopolitan ambiance and cultural richness, lies within a comfortable distance, offering a day of exploring landmarks, museums, and savouring the international charm of this Swiss city.

In conclusion, a holiday to the French Alps, centred around the comforts of Apartment Thonon in Morzine, assures a varied and enriching escapade. Whether conquering the slopes, engaging in non-skiing pursuits in Morzine, exploring nearby Châtel, or venturing further to Chamonix and Geneva, each day unfolds new adventures in this Alpine wonderland.
