What we love

- Chalet Moudon is an inviting home within a complex of Swedish-style chalets which are built from repurposed wood and aim to be carbon neutral to protect the environment.
- The house offers four bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms, making it the perfect retreat for a group of couples or a family.
- For a touch of luxury, you are able to book a private chef for breakfasts, half board catering or special meals.
- There is a supermarket and a few small shops near the house, with a larger selection and the ski slopes in the centre of Les Gets town 1.5km away.

What you should know...

- There is private parking available on-site, though the spaces are quite tight.
- Guests are asked not to host loud parties or gatherings during their stay, as the area is peaceful.
- The house is kept cosy with a centralised heating system which you will not be able to control yourself.
- As the home has exposed woodwork, you should be careful of splinters.
