

Chalet Magy

Region: Portes du Soleil Sleeps: 15

Overview

Chalet Magy is a spacious and beautifully crafted alpine residence offering a stylish year-round escape for up to fifteen guests. Just one kilometre from the heart of Les Gets and within easy reach of both the Perrières and Chavannes lifts, this expansive property is ideal for large families or multi-generational groups looking for comfort, flexibility and space.

Spread over multiple levels and covering 400 square metres, the chalet features seven bedrooms—all with en-suite bathrooms—including a children's bunk room and two mezzanine sleeping areas, making it well-suited to varied group types. At the heart of the home is a welcoming, wood-panelled living space with an L-shaped sofa, fireplace and Smart TV, opening onto a sun-drenched terrace with panoramic mountain views.

Guests can unwind in the private sauna after a day on the slopes, enjoy a film night in the cosy TV room, or challenge each other in the games room, equipped with table tennis and table football. The fully equipped kitchen, breakfast bar and large dining table make catering a breeze, whether self-prepared or arranged through a private chef.

With bike and ski storage, concierge services, outdoor parking and child-friendly facilities available on request, Chalet Magy combines chalet charm with family functionality—offering the perfect base to enjoy Les Gets in both winter and summer.

Location & Local Information

Chalet Magy enjoys a peaceful setting just one kilometre from the centre of Les Gets, offering the ideal balance between seclusion and accessibility. Both the Perrières and Chavannes ski lifts are also around one kilometre away, providing quick entry into the vast Portes du Soleil ski domain.

In winter, guests can take advantage of over six hundred kilometres of slopes, with terrain suitable for beginners through to advanced skiers. Ski schools, rental shops, and après-ski venues are all easily reached by car or on foot, and the chalet's private ski storage ensures a smooth start and end to each day on the mountain.

When the snow melts, Les Gets becomes a summer haven for outdoor adventure. Scenic hiking and biking trails weave through alpine meadows and forests, while nearby activities such as paragliding, golf, and lake swimming offer something for every pace. The village also hosts family-friendly events, weekly markets, and mountain festivals throughout the warmer months.

With its hillside location, Chalet Magy benefits from far-reaching views and a sense of privacy, while still keeping you close to the lively atmosphere and amenities of the resort. Whether visiting for snowy slopes or sunny trails, it's an excellent year-round base for discovering Les Gets.

What we love

- Chalet Magy is a stunning home with everything you could need, including a sauna, a games room, ski storage, TVs and a sound system.
- The home offers seven spacious bedrooms and can accommodate up to 15 guests in comfort.
- The home is located just 1km away from the centre of Les Gets in the French Alps, making it a wonderful base for exploring the Portes du Soleil ski area.
- The nearest ski slopes are 1km away which you can walk to or take the shuttle bus. The bus stop is located just 140 m away from chalet.

What you should know...

- The chalet doesn't have a garage or covered parking, but there are plenty of outdoor parking spaces.
- The homeowners ask that you do not host loud gatherings and parties, so the peace in the area is maintained.
- While Chalet Magy sleeps 15 guests across a mix of standard, bunk, and mezzanine rooms - perfect for mixed family groups, the chalet may not suit seven couples.
- One of the bedrooms here is made up of bunk beds and single beds, making it great for the kids.
