Overview

Set within the charming, mountainside village of Argentière in the French Alps, guests staying at the beautiful Chalet Straton can easily reach the villages amenities as well as Les Grands Montets ski lift, making this an idyllic base for exploring the village and nearby Chamonix.

Nestled within a charming complex of six recently built, Alpine-style chalets, Chalet Straton stands out as a haven of comfort and style. Spread across four storeys, this wooden-clad retreat accommodates a party of eight with unparalleled views from each level.

The living space exudes a perfect blend of brightness and comfort, featuring inviting sofas, a captivating feature fireplace, and a Smart TV. Another level hosts a well-equipped kitchen and a dining table, providing an ideal setting for leisurely meals. For those who prefer culinary indulgence without the effort, the option to hire a private chef adds an extra layer of luxury.

Modern conveniences are seamlessly integrated throughout the chalet, including essential amenities like Wi-Fi, Smart TVs, contemporary bathrooms, and a convenient private ski locker. A touch of opulence awaits with the inclusion of a hot tub and sauna, offering relaxation and rejuvenation after exhilarating days of winter sports.

The four sumptuous bedrooms define restful elegance, each boasting its own balcony, a generously-sized double bed, and a luxurious en-suite bathroom featuring either a soothing bath or an invigorating shower. These private sanctuaries provide a cozy retreat for unwinding, ensuring that every guest enjoys a restful night's sleep amidst the Alpine serenity.

Chalet Straton is more than just a dwelling; it's an Alpine escape where modern comforts seamlessly blend with traditional charm, creating an inviting and memorable setting for an unforgettable holiday in the heart of the French Alps.

Chalet Straton is set within driving distance of the famous town of Chamonix and the staggering Mont Blanc, the tallest peak in Western Europe. The whole valley around the home, the Chamonix Valley is a treasure trove of world-class ski resorts and slopes for all abilities making this an unbeatable location for a ski holiday.

Your nearest amenities, restaurants, cafes and supermarkets as well as closest skiing opportunities are even closer to the house however, in the village of Argentière which is within a short stroll of the chalet.

The chalet is available year-round, but facilities, property and local amenities may vary depending upon season.

Location & Local Information

Nestled in the heart of the French Alps, Argentière is a picturesque village that serves as an idyllic winter retreat. Located just 7km away from the renowned Chamonix, this quaint village boasts the perfect blend of alpine charm and breathtaking mountain scenery.

The village of Argentière is a haven for winter sports enthusiasts, with its proximity to the Grand Montets ski lifts offering access to the majestic Mont Blanc. Chalet Straton, your home away from home, provides a cozy and inviting atmosphere, allowing you to unwind after exhilarating days on the slopes. The village itself is a charming mix of traditional alpine architecture and modern amenities, creating a welcoming ambiance.

In Argentière, explore local cafes and restaurants like La Crêmerie du Glacier, where you can savour authentic Savoyard cuisine. After a day of skiing, indulge in a relaxing evening at one of the village's wellness centres or enjoy a leisurely stroll through its charming streets.

A short 7km drive away, Chamonix beckons with its vibrant atmosphere and world-class amenities. The town is not only a hub for winter sports but also a cultural and culinary delight. Explore the bustling streets lined with shops, cafes, and restaurants offering a variety of international and local cuisine. Notable establishments include Le Bistrot des Sports and Maison Carrier, where you can experience the best of French gastronomy.

Chamonix isn't just about skiing; it's also a gateway to thrilling winter activities. Take a cable car to Aiguille du Midi for panoramic views, or embark on a journey to the nearby Grotte de Glace, an ice cave that promises a unique and magical experience.

Venturing beyond Argentière and Chamonix, consider day trips to the Grotte de Glace, a mesmerizing ice cave located just 15km away. Explore the stunning ice formations and learn about the glacial environment, adding a touch of adventure to your holiday.

For a change of scenery, take a 16km drive to Les Houches. This charming town offers a more relaxed atmosphere, with opportunities for winter hiking and enjoying the local cuisine at cosy cafes.

In conclusion, a holiday in Argentière promises a perfect blend of alpine beauty, winter sports excitement, and cultural exploration. Whether you're conquering the slopes, indulging in local delicacies, or embarking on day trips to nearby attractions, this French Alps getaway is sure to create lasting memories.

What we love

- Chalet Straton is a newly-built home within a small collection of six houses
- The home offers all of the comforts you would wish for on a relaxing break, from wood burning fireplaces to a hot tub
- If you do not fancy cooking, you can book a private chef for breakfast, half board catering or just special occasions
- The chalet is set in the idyllic village of Argentière, just 7km outside of Chamonix

What you should know...

- Chalet Straton is a four-storey home, so there are numerous staircases which may not suit those with mobility problems
- The house is 7km outside of Chamonix, but you will have the supermarkets, bars and restaurants of Argentière on your doorstep
- The home owners request that you do not hold parties and loud gatherings here as it is unfair for local residents
