

Apartment Fontbelle

Region: Alpe d'Huez Sleeps: 8

Overview

Apartment Fontbelle is a contemporary alpine retreat set on the slopes of the world renowned Alpe d'Huez Ski Resort. Blending modern design with homely comfort, it's the ideal base for families or groups of friends looking to enjoy the mountains in style.

The open-plan living area is bright and inviting, furnished with a generous corner sofa and a Smart TV for cosy evenings after a day on the pistes. Sliding doors lead onto a private terrace where you can take in sweeping views of the surrounding peaks and ski runs. The sleek, fully equipped kitchen makes cooking a pleasure, whether you're preparing hearty breakfasts before heading out or relaxed dinners to share around the dining table.

The apartment offers four welcoming bedrooms. Two double rooms feature en-suite bathrooms and private balconies, perfect for couples seeking extra comfort. A further double bedroom and a bunk room perfect for younger travellers share a modern bathroom, making the space well suited to families with children or mixed groups. Warm tones, contemporary finishes and thoughtful touches create a restful environment throughout.

Guests also benefit from access to the residence's well-equipped gym, ideal for keeping active off the slopes. Wi-Fi and modern amenities ensure you'll stay connected and comfortable during your stay.

Alpe d'Huez itself is a renowned ski destination with over 250km of varied runs, ranging from gentle beginner slopes to thrilling black pistes. The resort is also home to ski schools, lively après-ski venues, and a selection of shops, restaurants and cafés all within walking distance. In the summer months, Alpe d'Huez transforms into a paradise for cyclists, hikers and outdoor enthusiasts, offering a year-round playground in the French Alps.

The chalet is available year-round, but facilities, property and local amenities may vary depending upon season.

Location & Local Information

Nestled in the heart of the French Alps, Alpe d'Huez is a year-round destination where winter thrills meet summer adventures. At 1,860 metres, the resort offers an expansive ski area with slopes for every level, from beginner-friendly runs to the legendary Sarenne – one of the longest black pistes in Europe. Off the slopes, the town buzzes with ski shops, cosy cafés, gourmet restaurants and lively après-ski bars.

When the snow recedes, Alpe d'Huez transforms into a playground for hikers, cyclists and mountain bikers. The resort is famous for its Tour de France climbs, as well as scenic trails that wind through meadows and pastures. For gentler days, there are tranquil lakes, lush valleys and charming picnic spots to enjoy.

The town itself brims with character, from boutique shops to welcoming restaurants serving classic French cuisine. Nearby, Bourg d'Oisans offers a glimpse of local life at the valley's base, while Grenoble is within easy reach for cultural excursions. Whether you visit in the depths of winter or the height of summer, Alpe d'Huez delivers stunning landscapes and unforgettable Alpine experiences.

What we love

- Overlooking the ski slopes and within walking distance of the centre of Alpe d'Huez, Apartment Fontbelle is the perfect base
- With four bedrooms and a gorgeous living space, the home can sleep six adults and two children in comfortable surroundings
- The building offers guests a private ski locker, a well-equipped gym and on-site parking
- You could not wish to be closer to the slopes as the nearest ski lift is next to the apartment

What you should know...

- Two of the bedrooms here are quite small but still comfortable and share a well-equipped bathroom
- If you are planning on travelling by car there is underground parking on site for your car. Please note, the road to the apartment complex can be tricky to negotiate in the height of winter. Please ensure you come prepared with snow chains to make your journey issue free
- In summer, there is a secure communal bike storage area for those travelling with their bikes
- Though the apartment is on one floor, there are stairs up to the building's entrance
- Please note, the dining table can accomodate 6 guests at one time
