Apartment Madelon

Region: 3 Valleys Sleeps: 7

Overview

Set in the sought-after Plantret neighbourhood of Courchevel 1850, Apartment Madelon offers a stylish Alpine retreat for up to seven guests. This beautifully appointed duplex sits on the top floor of a residential building and boasts ski-in access during the winter months, along with sweeping mountain views and a private sauna – the ideal antidote to days on the slopes.

Designed with both comfort and character in mind, the apartment features an open-plan living space with a vaulted, wood-panelled ceiling, contemporary furnishings, and large windows that frame the snowy peaks. A fully equipped kitchen with a breakfast bar, cosy lounge, and sociable dining area make it perfect for relaxed evenings with family or friends. Three comfortable bedrooms – two with en-suite bathrooms – provide a restful night's sleep. A third family bathroom and thoughtful amenities such as Wi-Fi, Smart TV, and on-site ski room ensure a seamless stay.

In summer, the apartment transforms into a tranquil hideaway for mountain exploration. From hiking and cycling to paragliding and lake swimming, Courchevel's alpine landscape offers endless opportunities for outdoor adventure. After an active day, the private sauna provides welcome respite, while the apartment's elevated position offers a peaceful backdrop of green meadows and forested trails.

With its year-round appeal, Apartment Madelon is equally suited to ski breaks and summer escapes. Within walking distance of ski schools, restaurants and local shops, it also includes a covered garage, lift access, and optional services such as private chefs and transfers. Whether you're carving through fresh powder or soaking up the mountain air on sun-drenched trails, this chic Alpine base combines elegance and practicality in one of the most prestigious corners of Les Trois Vallées.

Location & Local Information

Apartment Madelon is perfectly positioned in the Plantret neighbourhood of Courchevel 1850, one of the most desirable areas in the prestigious Les Trois Vallées. In winter, guests benefit from ski-in access and proximity to the renowned ski school, as well as a choice of shops, restaurants and lifts just a short walk away. With over six hundred kilometres of interlinked pistes, Courchevel offers world-class skiing for all levels, alongside a vibrant après-ski scene ranging from rustic taverns to refined wine bars.

During the summer months, Courchevel reveals a different kind of charm. Verdant meadows, alpine trails and glacial lakes make it a paradise for hikers, cyclists and nature lovers. Activities such as paragliding, golf, horseback riding and climbing provide plenty of ways to explore the spectacular surroundings. Families can enjoy the nearby Aquamotion centre, with pools, slides, a spa and wellness facilities.

Whether visiting for snow-filled adventures or warm-weather pursuits, Apartment Madelon offers year-round access to the very best of Courchevel's mountain lifestyle.

What we love

- After spending the day outdoors in the crisp mountain air, we loved snuggling up for a family movie night back in Apartment Madelon's cosy lounge area.
- We adored the apartment's ski-in ski-out location, not to mention the dreamlike views of the snow-capped mountains!
- We still dream about spending laidback evenings relaxing in the warmth of Apartment Madelon's soothing sauna.
- We highly recommend the varied après-ski scene in Courchevel, which encompasses cosy wooden taverns, traditional Savoyard dining experiences, and lively, sun-drenched terraces.

What you should know...

- One parking is available in a covered garage on-site,making travelling to the apartment by car very convenient
- Located in one of Courchevel livelier areas, guests may occasionally hear sounds from nearby venues or evening activity, if you are looking for a quieter retreat, head down to Le Praz, known for it's quiet ambience.
- Snow groomers (piste bashers) can sometimes be heard during the night as they prepare the slopes for the next day.
