The apartment is ideally situated just a short stroll away from the main Doron piste and the vibrant village centre, making it the perfect base for ski enthusiasts. Méribel exudes an authentic mountain ambience, offering a delightful array of cosy bars, traditional restaurants, and local shops to explore.

Méribel's lively centre is a hub of activity, boasting a cinema, swimming pool, spa, boutique shops, ski hire options, and a fabulous range of apres-ski venues to discover! In the lower part of the village, La Chaudanne is home to the prestigious Olympic sports complex, which has hosted many major sporting events. Here, you will also find a family-friendly ice rink and a challenging climbing wall for added entertainment away from the slopes! For those who wish to spend each and every day outside in the fresh mountain air, you can easily access the powder-soft pistes of the expansive Three Valley ski area from the centre of Méribel.

With the natural beauty of the Alpine Forest providing a breathtaking backdrop to Méribel's charming architecture, this is the perfect destination for winter sports enthusiasts and nature lovers alike. The resort itself lies in the stunning Tarentaise Valley in the French Alps. Founded by Scotsman Peter Lindsay, Méribel has evolved into a beloved ski destination with modern links providing access to over 150km of pistes and the extensive 600km of slopes that spread far across the famous Three Valleys.

Whether you are a beginner or a seasoned skier, Méribel offers diverse terrain, including Altiport for beginners, the Saulire and Tougnete areas for mixed abilities, and the challenging runs of Mont du Vallon for those seeking a more advanced experience. With a mix of green, blue, red and black runs, Méribel guarantees a thrilling experience for skiers and snowboarders. Additional off-piste activities, such as ice skating and snowmobiling, only add to the excitement!

After an exhilarating day on the slopes, Méribel comes alive in the evenings. The vibrant apres-ski scene offers a range of experiences, from laidback taverns and intimate wine bars to sun-drenched terraces and live music venues. With plenty of boutiques and shops, Méribel is not just a ski destination but a delightful winter haven waiting to be explored.
