

Apartment Lyre

Region: Chamonix Sleeps: 4

Overview

Apartment Lyre is a welcoming and well-located base for up to four guests, ideally positioned just 200 metres from the Prarion cable car in Les Houches. With its easy access to the slopes, this stylish ground-floor apartment is perfect for small families, couples or friends seeking a relaxed stay in the Chamonix Valley.

The apartment features two comfortable bedrooms—one with a double bed and one that can be arranged as a twin or double—alongside two bathrooms, including an en-suite shower room and a separate family bathroom with bath and shower. The open-plan living area is light and inviting, with a Smart TV, sofa and armchairs, while doors lead out to a private terrace with dining space and views of the surrounding peaks.

A fully equipped kitchen and dining table for six make in-chalet meals simple and sociable, or guests can explore the nearby restaurants and bakeries in Les Houches, just a five-minute drive away. The apartment also includes a ski locker, washing machine, Wi-Fi, and private parking, with concierge services available for added convenience.

Close to ski hire shops and mountain lifts, and within easy reach of Chamonix's shops, trails and summer activities, Apartment Lyre is a comfortable year-round escape in the French Alps.

Location & Local Information

Apartment Lyre enjoys a prime location in the heart of the Chamonix Valley, just 200 metres from the Prarion cable car in Les Houches. This sought-after position allows guests to step onto the slopes within minutes in winter, with ski hire and equipment shops only a short walk away.

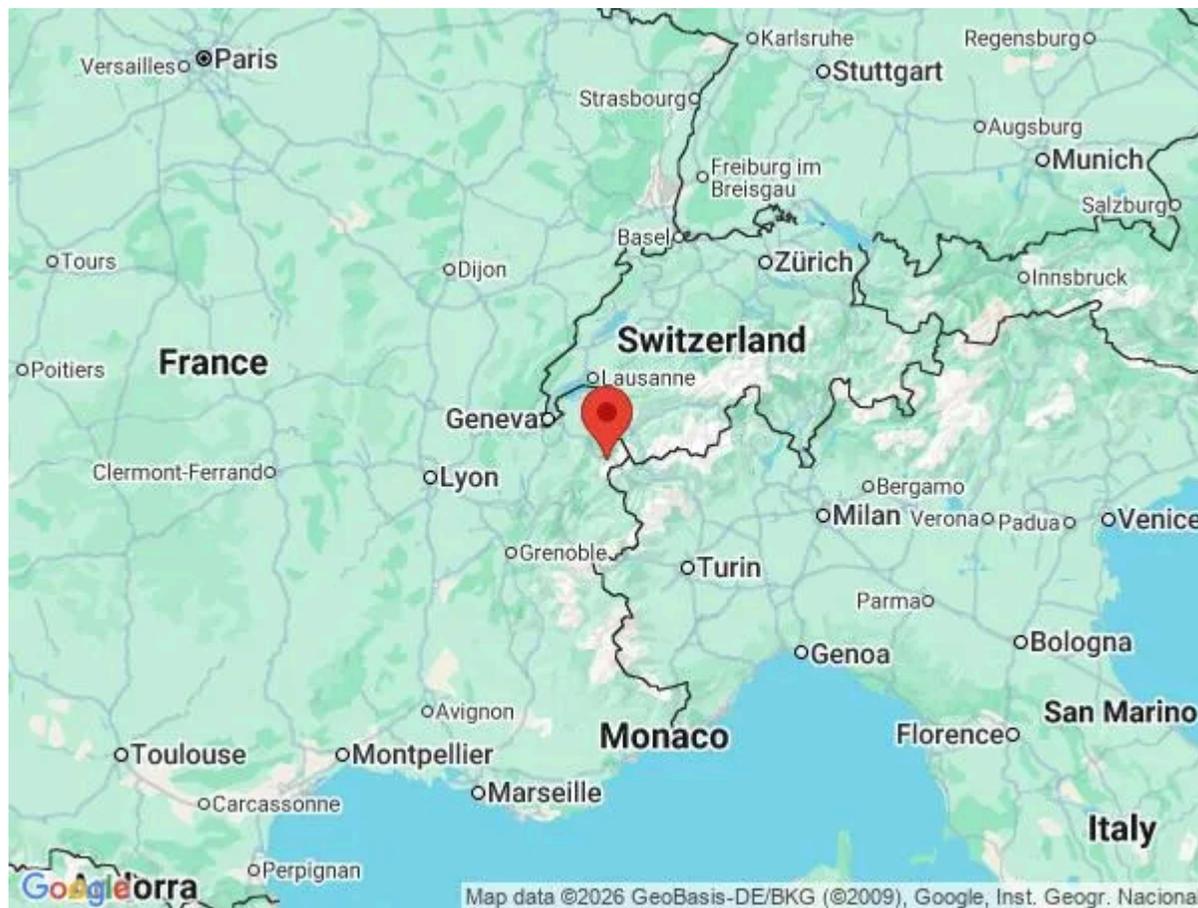

Les Houches is known for its peaceful atmosphere, tree-lined pistes and family-friendly facilities, offering an ideal alternative to the busier central resorts. From beginners' areas and ski schools to more challenging descents, the area caters to all skill levels. After a day on the mountain, local restaurants, bakeries and shops are easily reached by foot or car.

In the warmer months, the area transforms into a haven for outdoor enthusiasts. Hiking and biking trails wind through meadows and forests, and nearby lakes provide scenic spots for picnics and paddleboarding. The village also offers tennis courts, adventure parks and a range of summer events.

With Chamonix just a fifteen-minute drive away, guests can access even more shops, restaurants, and alpine activities, from glacier hikes to panoramic viewpoints. Whether you're visiting for snowy slopes or sunny trails, Apartment Lyre places you perfectly for exploring this beautiful corner of the Alps.

What we love

- Apartment Lyre is a haven for skiers as the Prarion cable car and the French Ski School are within just 200m of the home
- With a beautiful, open-plan living area and two bedrooms, the apartment is peaceful retreat for four guests
- Outdoors, you can access a shared garden and a private terrace with a dining space which has incredible mountain views

What you should know...

- The home is located around 1.5km away from the village centre, so you will need to walk, take the bus or drive into the centre
- Parking is outdoors and uncovered, which may require snow clearing in winter, please factor this in if you wish to use your car in snow conditions
- We ask that guests do not host any loud parties or gatherings at the apartment so that the neighbours are not disturbed
- Heating is provided via a centralised system controlled externally, so while temperatures cannot be individually adjusted, the chalet remains at the perfect temperature during your stay regardless of the time of year
