

La Belle Refuge

Region: French Riviera (Cote D'Azur) Sleeps: 8

Overview

La Belle Refuge enjoys a beautiful seafront setting just a few steps from Plage de l'Escalet, 11km south of Saint-Tropez.

From the end of the garden, you only need to cross a little path and you will be gazing at the azure-coloured Mediterranean from the rocky ledges. Indeed, you are in the very heart of this small seaside resort which, despite being fairly remote, is bustling in the height of the summer. The sea is ideal for swimming and snorkelling whilst a coastal hiking trail leads towards Cap Taillat passing other gorgeous coves.

Sleeping up to 8 guests, this charming villa is bright and welcoming with a spacious lounge and open-plan kitchen and sliding doors leading to the terrace with that stunning sea view. Upstairs there are two sea-facing bedrooms whilst the other two bedrooms and an air-conditioned TV lounge can be found on the garden level. The attractive garden is home to a superb swimming pool.

The southern end of Saint-Tropez' Plage de Pampelonne is around a 10-minute drive away. This iconic long sandy beach is home to exclusive beach clubs, summer restaurants and a fantastic range of watersports. In the other direction, the picture-perfect shores of Plage de Gigaro are 12.5km by car.

Even closer is characterful Ramatuelle, a hilltop village where you can potter around its medieval flower-filled lanes, restaurants and art galleries. Picture-perfect Gassin and Grimaud are a little further afield whilst the former fishing village of Saint-Tropez, now one of the French Riviera's most famous destinations, is waiting to be explored.

Location & Local Information

La Belle Refuge enjoys a spectacular sea-facing setting next to Plage de l'Escalet. This is an incredibly picturesque corner of the French Riviera below hilltop Ramatuelle (5.5km), around a 15-minute drive south of Saint-Tropez (11km).

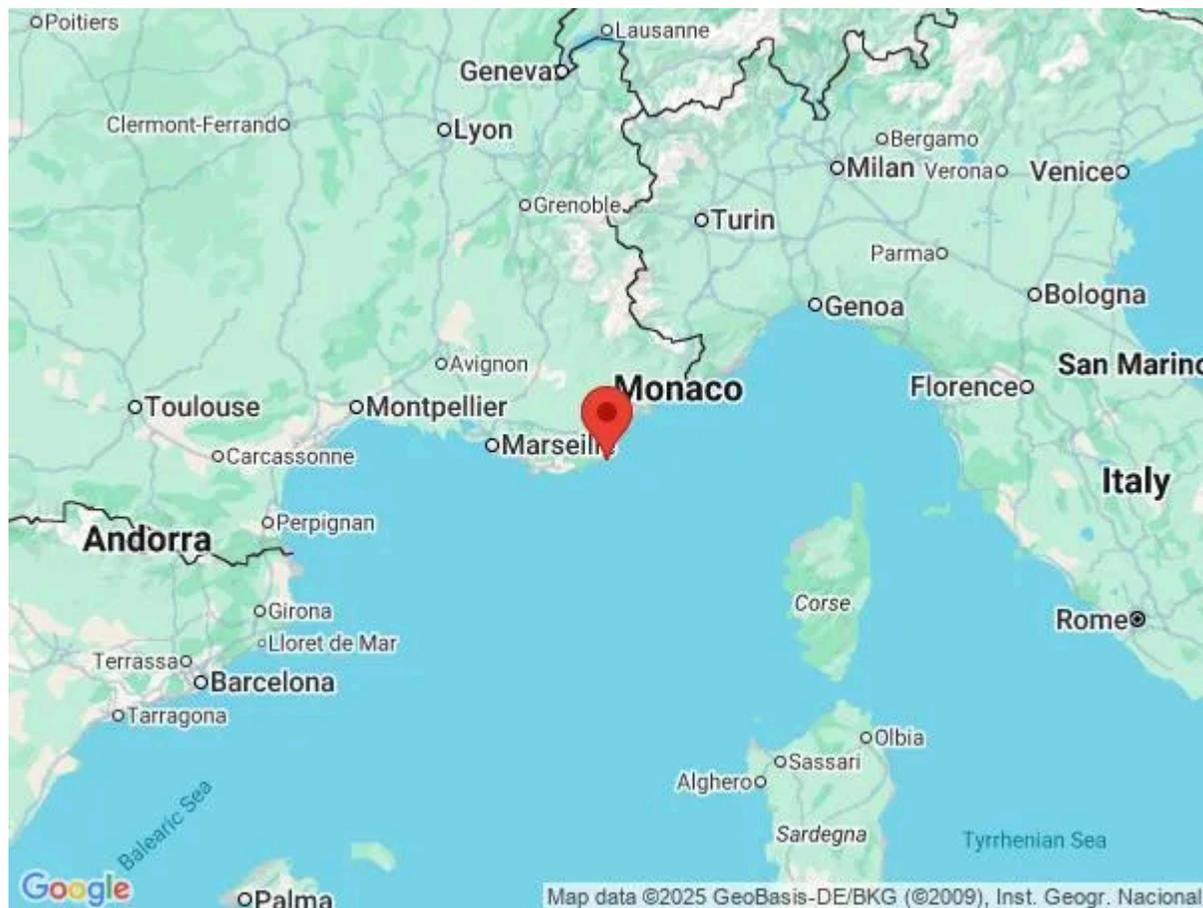

From the end of the garden, cross a little path and you will be by the rocky ledges with direct access to the sea. Just a minute or two away is Plage de l'Escalet, a small sheltered bay with azure-coloured clear water for swimming and snorkelling. Seasonal watersports here include sea-kayaking and paddle-boarding. This area is ideal for keen walkers - a coastal hiking path leads past small coves towards Cap Taillat.

In the height of the summer you will usually find a little kiosk open for snacks and drinks and there is a good-sized supermarket around a 3km drive away. The villa benefits from two car parking spaces which is fantastic as the resort, despite being fairly remote, can get busy in the summer. The nearest restaurants are either in Ramatuelle or at the southern end of Plage de Pampelonne, both around a 10-minute drive away.

Ramatuelle (5.5km) is a beautiful village to explore with its flower-filled medieval lanes, lovely restaurants, art galleries and 16th century church. Enjoy glorious views of the Côte d'Azur from its hilltop location.

South of Saint-Tropez, Plage de Pampelonne is around 10 minutes in the car. Along this 5km long sandy beach discover summer restaurants, exclusive beach clubs and a range of watersports including pedalo hire, jet-skiing and windsurfing.

Saint-Tropez (11km) is of course a wonderful trip out whether experiencing the authenticity of its twice-weekly market or dining in a gastronomic restaurant in the evening. The medieval centre is full of charm whilst the marina is impressive with its mega yachts. Look out for boat tours of the French Riviera as well as ferries towards Port Grimaud, Sainte-Maxime and beyond.

Take time to visit other gorgeous Côte d'Azur villages including Gassin (11km) and Grimaud (19km) or venture west towards the vineyards of La Croix Valmer. Plage de Gigaro and its surrounding beaches, some of the region's most stunning coastline, is only 12.5km away by car.
