Location & Local Information

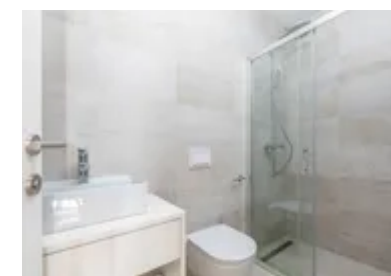

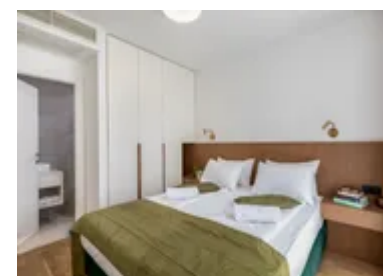

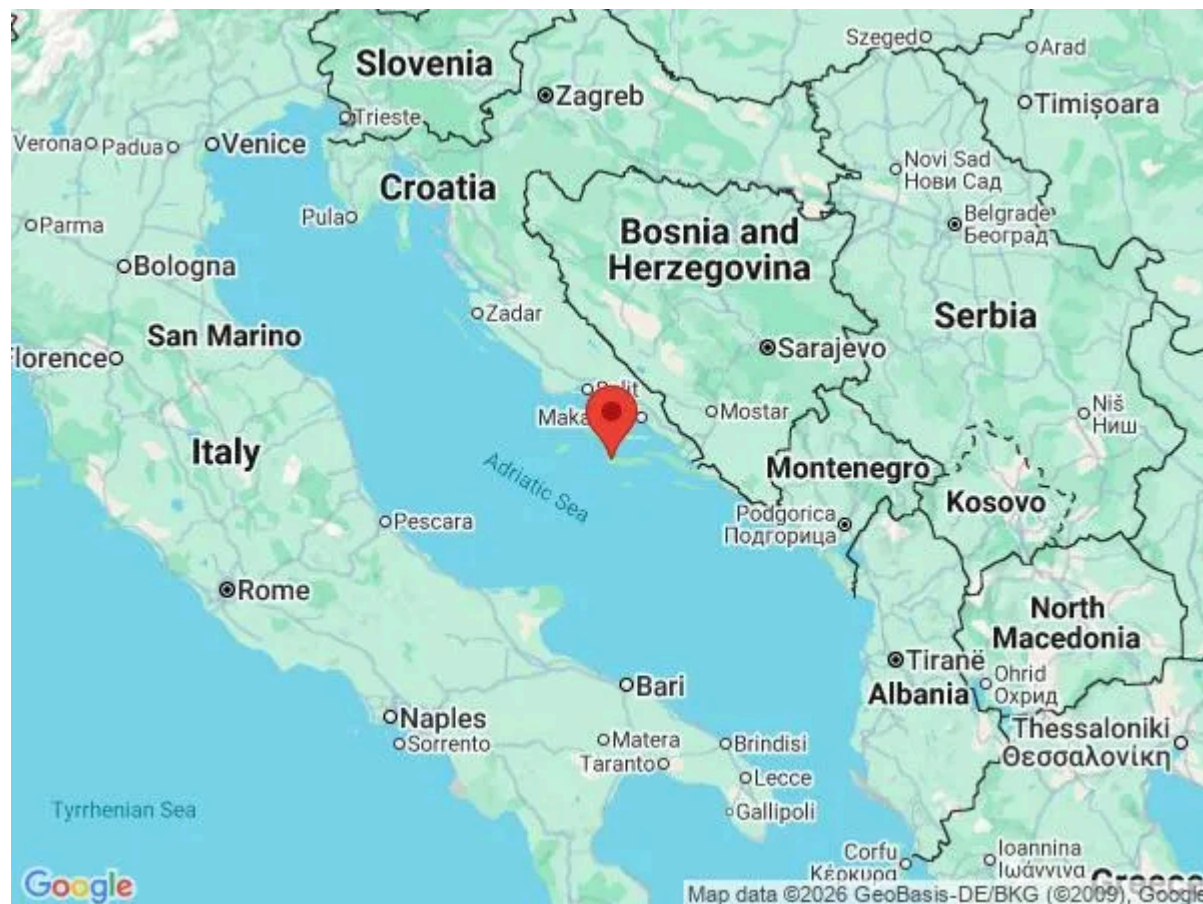

Set across the bay from the tranquil town of Vela Luka, Villa Farda offers an authentic Korčula experience, far from the crowds of more frequented islands. Vela Luka, where ferries from Split arrive, is rich in culture and nature, from the intriguing Vela Spila cave to the local cultural centre, home to works by Henry Moore.

A scenic drive east brings you to Korčula Old Town, often dubbed "Little Dubrovnik" for its medieval walls, Venetian architecture and striking sea views. Highlights include St. Mark's Cathedral and the reputed birthplace of Marco Polo. Enjoy a glass of local wine at Mariola Wine Bar or sip cocktails with a view at Massimo, perched atop a fifteenth-century tower.

Food enthusiasts will enjoy discovering Makaruni, Korčula's signature handmade pasta, especially in nearby Zrnovo. Whether you're wandering coastal paths or exploring historic towns, Villa Farda is perfectly placed for a relaxing and enriching island escape.
