

Villa Irisia

Region: Croatia    Sleeps: 8

Overview

With a backdrop of the lush green countryside of the Istria Peninsula, Villa Irisia offers a tranquil retreat for your summer break. Nearby, you can access local villages, vibrant towns, and incredible walking and hiking routes. This is an area that offers something for everyone.

Villa Irisia, completed in 2023, stands as one of the newest additions to the area, offering a perfect blend of modern amenities and stunning design. The house has contemporary features such as Wi-Fi, air conditioning, Smart TVs, and a Dolby Digital sound system throughout, ensuring a seamless and luxurious living experience.

The ground floor unveils the heart of the home, a large open-plan living and dining space bathed in natural light. Plush sofas, armchairs, and a Smart TV create a welcoming ambience, while a dining table for eight seamlessly connects to the garden. The adjacent kitchen is a beautiful space equipped with everything needed for culinary endeavours, including a wine cellar for enthusiasts.

Villa Irisia boasts four spacious bedrooms, with one located on the ground floor offering garden access, a double bed, and a contemporary en-suite bathroom. The ground floor is further complemented by a laundry room, guest WC, and a welcoming sauna, adding to the overall comfort.

On the upper floor, three additional bedrooms await, each with unique charm. A room with two single beds and an en-suite bathroom caters to the little ones, while two large bedrooms open onto a terrace with a jacuzzi and outdoor seating. These double rooms feature TVs and en-suite shower rooms, ensuring privacy and convenience.

The landscaped garden is a haven of relaxation, with a large private pool taking centre stage. Sun loungers line the poolside, inviting moments of leisure under the Croatian sun. An outdoor summer kitchen allows for al-fresco cooking, and a shaded terrace offers the perfect setting for dining and socializing. Villa Irisia is a testament to modern luxury, providing a serene and stylish retreat on the stunning Istrian Peninsula.

With only a few neighbouring homes nearby, this setting is a great place to unwind in the Croatian countryside. You will not be cut off, however, as the amenities of Križine village are within walking distance, as is the closest beach.

The larger town of Umag is a mere 5km away; here, you can visit museums and Roman ruins and take boat trips along the Umag Riviera, which is a delightful way to pass the afternoon. Umag is a great place to visit for dinner, as you will find an abundance of local Croatian restaurants and international eateries here.

Location & Local Information

A holiday to the Croatian Istria Peninsula promises a captivating journey of coastal charm, historic treasures, and vibrant experiences. Nestled in the quaint village of Križine, Villa Irisia offers a splendid retreat with modern amenities and proximity to the enchanting Istrian beaches.

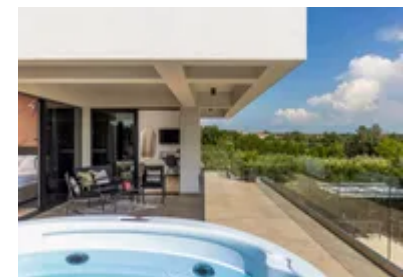

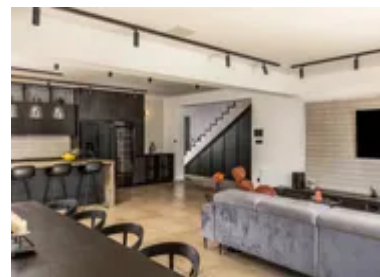

Zlatorog Beach, with its golden shores and crystal-clear waters, provides a tranquil escape, inviting strolls along the coast and refreshing swims in the Adriatic. Spina Beach, a hidden gem, adds to the coastal allure with its serene ambience, ideal for those seeking a more secluded seaside experience.

Just 5km away lies the charming town of Umag, a vibrant hub on the Istrian Peninsula. The town boasts a rich history reflected in its architectural gems like the Church of St. Mary and the Venetian House. Explore the lively Umag Riviera, adorned with cafes, shops, and restaurants overlooking the sparkling sea. The town's central square, Trg Slobode, is a gathering place surrounded by historic buildings, inviting you to savour local cuisine and coffee.

Umag is renowned for its diverse culinary scene, offering seafood delicacies, truffle-infused dishes, and Istrian wines. The town's vibrant market showcases fresh produce, local olive oil, and handmade crafts, providing a taste of authentic Istrian life.

For sun-soaked relaxation, Umag boasts several beaches, including Katoro Beach and Aurora Beach, where you can unwind by the sea or engage in water sports. The Umag Riviera offers a picturesque promenade for leisurely walks dotted with charming cafes and shops. Boat trips from Umag reveal the stunning Istrian coastline, allowing you to explore hidden coves and nearby islands. For nature enthusiasts, walks around the town's parks, such as Park Moreno, offer serene green spaces and beautiful landscapes.

Umag is also famous for hosting the Croatia Open, a renowned tennis tournament, attracting sports enthusiasts to witness world-class tennis matches. The town's ATP stadium adds to the sports culture of Umag, contributing to its dynamic atmosphere.

Day trips from Umag lead to Istria's interior, where medieval hilltop towns like Grožnjan and Motovun await exploration. Each town exudes its unique charm, with cobblestone streets, historic landmarks, and panoramic views of the Istrian landscape.

In essence, a holiday in the Croatian Istria Peninsula, centred around the village of Križine and the town of Umag, promises a harmonious blend of coastal relaxation, cultural exploration, and unforgettable experiences in the heart of the Adriatic. Villa Irisia serves as a perfect base, offering both comfort and proximity to the enchanting delights of Istria.
