Coach House at Good Hope

Region: Jamaica Sleeps: 14

Overview

Set within the heart of the 2,000 acre Good Hope Estate in Trelawny, The Coach House at Good Hope is presented as a refined yet informal country retreat for up to 14 guests. Surrounded by citrus groves, coconut palms, and the rolling green hills of Cockpit Country, the villa enjoys magnificent views across a verdant valley through which the Martha Brae River gently flows. Recently renovated, this historic cut stone residence blends heritage architecture with contemporary comfort, offering seven air conditioned bedrooms with en suite bathrooms and ceiling fans. Six bedrooms are positioned within the main house, four on the ground floor opening from a striking arched entrance hall with limestone floors and cut stone walls, and two upstairs at opposite ends of the house with sweeping valley views. A private seventh bedroom rests on the lower garden level, accessed from the pool terrace, offering added seclusion. A 50 foot infinity edge pool, open air dining terrace, yoga deck overlooking the hills, and an outdoor movie projector create space for both shared moments and peaceful retreat, all supported by a full staff including cook, butler, and housekeeper.

Life on the estate is experienced at an unhurried pace, where meals are served family style and days are shaped by nature. Guided river and farm walks, yoga sessions, pottery lessons, bonfire evenings, and river picnics may be arranged, while the wider estate offers jungle river tubing, zip lining, rum tasting, and family adventures at Jungle Adventure Falls. The private beach clubhouse, located 25 minutes away, provides 110 feet of white sand and calm waters for swimming. With Wi Fi throughout, Smart TV entertainment, child friendly amenities, and optional all inclusive meal plans, The Coach House is offered as a gathering place where Jamaica's history, landscape, and gentle rhythm are quietly embraced.

Location & Local Information

Located in the picturesque parish of Trelawny, Jamaica, The Coach House at Good Hope is more than just a villa; it's a gateway to a world of natural wonders and cultural treasures waiting to be explored. Situated on the sprawling 18th-century Good Hope Estate, this charming retreat offers guests an unparalleled opportunity to immerse themselves in Jamaica's rich history and vibrant landscapes.

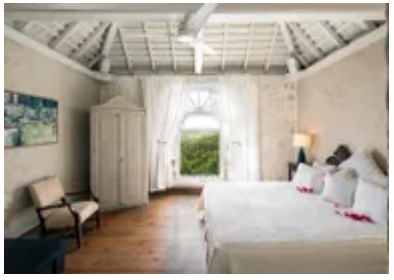

Surrounded by lush green hills and the majestic Martha Brae River winding through its heart, Good Hope Estate spans over 2000 acres of pristine wilderness, citrus orchards, and coconut groves. Step outside the villa, and you're greeted by the sights and sounds of an untouched paradise – from the verdant valleys of the Cockpit country to the tranquil waters of the Martha Brae.

For adventure seekers, the estate offers a plethora of activities to suit every taste. Embark on a guided river walk through the lush jungle, where hidden waterfalls and exotic wildlife await around every bend. For those craving a taste of adrenaline, horseback riding and zip-lining adventures promise thrills amidst the canopy tops.

But the allure of Good Hope extends far beyond its natural splendours. History buffs will delight in exploring the estate's historic Great House, a testament to Jamaica's colonial past, where guided tours offer insights into centuries-old traditions and customs. And for those seeking a taste of Jamaica's famed hospitality, the estate's private beach clubhouse beckons with its warm sands, azure waters, and a host of water sports activities, from paddleboarding to boogie boarding.

Venture beyond the estate, and you'll discover a treasure trove of attractions waiting to be uncovered. From the vibrant markets of Falmouth, where local artisans showcase their talents, to the cascading waterfalls of Dunn's River, where the waters beckon with their ethereal beauty, the wonders of Jamaica are yours to explore.

And after a day of adventure, return to the comfort of The Coach House, where a dedicated staff awaits to pamper you with the finest Jamaican cuisine and hospitality. Whether it's savouring a traditional Jamaican meal under the stars or simply unwinding by the infinity pool, The Coach House at Good Hope promises an experience unlike any other – where every moment is a celebration of Jamaica's timeless allure. Welcome to paradise.
