

Villa Papalina

Region: Brac Sleeps: 8

Overview

Sitting in charming village of Sutivan on the island of Brač, Villa Papalina offers a contemporary escape. Designed in a modern architectural style, the villa is fully air-conditioned and ideal for families or groups of friends. The bright ground floor features a welcoming living area with comfortable seating and TV, a dining table for sociable meals, and a fully equipped kitchen for easy home cooking. One en-suite bedroom is located on this level with terrace access, while upstairs two further en-suite bedrooms open onto private terraces with beautiful sea views. A sofa bed provides additional flexibility if required.

Outside, the spacious terrace centres around a heated swimming pool with atmospheric lighting, surrounded by sun loungers for relaxed days in the sun. A covered outdoor dining area and traditional charcoal or wood barbecue creates the perfect setting for al fresco evenings, complemented by a comfortable poolside lounge.

Brač offers a variety of cultural and natural highlights, from historic villages such as Škrip to fascinating local museums and striking coastal landscapes. Villa Papalina provides a comfortable base from which to explore the island's beaches, heritage, and excellent local cuisine.

Location & Local Information

Sutivan is a small coastal town on the north-western shore of Brač, known for its traditional Mediterranean architecture, historic landmarks and relaxed seaside setting. Centred around a pretty harbour and palm-lined promenade, the village offers a selection of cafés, local restaurants, bakeries and small supermarkets, all within easy reach.

The town's history is reflected in its elegant stone buildings and notable sites such as the 17th-century Kaštel Marijanović on the Riva, the Baroque Kavanjin Mansion with its walled garden, and the Church of St. Roch in the heart of the village.

Outdoor enthusiasts can enjoy cycling and walking trails that connect Sutivan to nearby beaches and viewpoints, while Park Prirode Sutivan offers family-friendly facilities including a small zoo and sports areas. Pebble beaches such as Bunta and Likva provide clear waters ideal for swimming and snorkelling, all close to the village centre.
