

Villa Komarca

Region: Zadar Sleeps: 14

Overview

Set in the coastal town of Starigrad at the foot of the Velebit mountains, Villa Komarca offers stylish seclusion just eighty metres from the Adriatic Sea. Designed with comfort and space in mind, this modern retreat accommodates up to twelve guests across six en-suite bedrooms, with room for two additional visitors on a sofa bed.

The ground floor features a sleek, fully equipped kitchen, a spacious dining area, and a relaxed lounge with plush sofas, a television and a PlayStation. Upstairs, each bedroom enjoys its own private bathroom and a terrace, ideal for peaceful mornings and sea views.

Outdoors, a heated swimming pool takes centre stage, flanked by sun loungers and a shaded lounge area. The covered summer kitchen, complete with barbecue and dining space beneath pine trees, is perfectly suited to alfresco meals. Additional highlights include a jacuzzi, sauna, and practical amenities such as a washing machine and separate WC.

Families are well catered for with a cot, high chairs and a secure, fenced garden. The villa welcomes up to two pets by prior arrangement and offers six private parking spaces and an electric vehicle charger.
