Location & Local Information

Boasting a truly enviable location overlooking the Lac de Tignes, Apartment Haeney beckons ski enthusiasts and nature lovers alike to discover the spectacular playground that is the Tignes-Val d'Isère ski area. Featuring an expansive 300km of interconnected slopes, this ski haven has witnessed many unforgettable winter sports events, from World Championships to European Cup competitions. During the Olympic Games of 1992, Tignes even hosted three major freestyle skiing events.

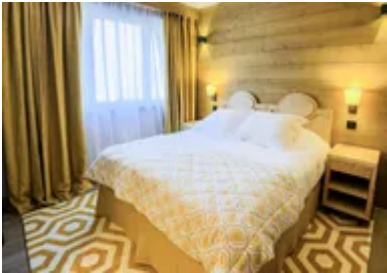

Tignes is a dynamic and multifaceted resort that transcends the conventional winter sports scene by offering various original and diverse activities. Discover the unique thrill of ice diving experience the exhilaration of dog sledging, or make the most of your first time on the slopes with dedicated ski and snowboarding areas specially designed for families and beginners. For a different sort of holiday, the resort transforms into a green paradise each summer, inviting visitors to paraglide over the peaks, enjoy a round of golf at Europe's highest course, spend sunny mornings hiking or mountain biking, and cool off in the refreshing waters of the local lake.

With a dreamlike location amidst the stunning natural beauty of the Vanoise National Park, Tignes is known and commended for its dedication to providing sustainable holiday experiences all year round. The resort is committed to the preservation of local flora and fauna, meaning that summer visitors may be lucky enough to glimpse ibexes, marmots, and golden eagles as they hike the resort's many trails. During the winter, the village of Val Claret becomes a bustling hive of outdoor activity, with ski lifts leading to the breathtaking Grande Motte glacier, the highest point of the whole Tignes resort.

For those searching for culinary adventures, Tignes boasts a rich gastronomic scene, with delicious delicacies, including a traditional blueberry tart and plenty of mouthwatering savoury dishes made using local cheeses. The diverse après-ski scene in Tignes can be as laidback or as lively as you make it, with stylish bars offering quiet, cosy corners in which to unwind, while larger venues feature sun-drenched terraces with mountain vistas and live music.
