

Villa Asiwa

Region: Rogoznica Sleeps: 8

Overview

Villa Asiwa is a beautifully designed, modern home enveloped by a rural landscape and a vast garden. Within 6km of this countryside retreat, you can find the nearest beaches and Rogoznica, which is around 8km away, meaning you are not isolated here.

The villa is a serene escape, seamlessly blending modern comfort with rustic charm. The farmhouse-style building exudes tranquillity as you approach through lush fields and vibrant flower beds. Inside, the double-height living room captivates with its tasteful design, featuring an L-shaped sofa, armchairs, and a flat-screen TV. The kitchen, adorned with contemporary elements, invites culinary endeavours.

The house accommodates four bedrooms, including three doubles with balconies and a unique twin room with a captivating window overlooking the living space. Three elegant bathrooms, one with a bath and two with walk-in showers enhance the guests' experience.

Outdoors, the expansive garden offers a haven for relaxation and play. Children can delight in a football pitch, climbing frame, and a charming swing set. The main terrace, complete with a summer kitchen and dining space, is perfect for al-fresco meals. The inviting heated swimming pool becomes a focal point, encouraging leisurely dips and enjoyment for all ages.

Villa Asiwa effortlessly combines modernity and tradition, creating an idyllic escape for families or groups seeking a peaceful retreat surrounded by nature's beauty.

Surrounding the villa, you can easily access hiking trails, scenic picnic spots and cycling routes. There are bikes available for your use to make a day of cycling in the gorgeous surroundings as easy as can be.

When you wish to find the nearest restaurants and shops, there are a few under 5km away, while many more can be found in Rogoznica which is 8km away. This former fishing village has become a famous seaside town with delightful pebble beaches where you can spend many lazy days in the sun.

A short drive away, you can also visit Primošten, which is 15km away. This fantastic old town is set on its own island, connected to the mainland by a small strip.
