

Villa Everly

Region: Pelion Sleeps: 6

Overview

Set on Greece's picturesque Pelion Peninsula, Villa Everly offers a welcoming base for exploring nearby mountain villages, scenic hiking trails, and unspoilt beaches. Located within a modern resort yet designed in traditional Pelion style, the villa blends handcrafted décor, stained glass details, and local artwork to create a warm, characterful atmosphere.

Ideal for families or two couples, this two-bedroom retreat accommodates up to six guests with the addition of a sofa bed. The ground floor features an inviting open-plan living and dining area, complete with comfortable seating, a dining table for six, and a fully equipped kitchen. French doors lead to a sun-soaked terrace, perfect for relaxed outdoor moments, while a convenient shower room completes this level. Upstairs, two spacious double bedrooms share a family bathroom with a bath and open onto a charming balcony with views of the surrounding landscape.

Guests benefit from access to the resort's excellent facilities, including three restaurants, one with panoramic sea views, a sheltered beach, communal pools, and a range of activities such as dance classes and mini golf. The nearby fishing village of Horto and the town of Milina offer further opportunities for dining and exploration, while boat trips from the coastline provide a scenic way to discover the wider peninsula and nearby islands.

Location & Local Information

A holiday on Greece's Pelion Peninsula offers a seamless mix of relaxation, family-friendly activities, and authentic charm. Villa Everly, set within the scenic Village Resort, enjoys panoramic views over the Pagasetic Gulf.

The resort lies in the traditional fishing village of Horto, where olive-fringed beaches and a gentle pace of life set a serene tone. The village features a selection of shops, cafés, and tavernas serving regional specialties, perfect for sampling local flavours and culture.

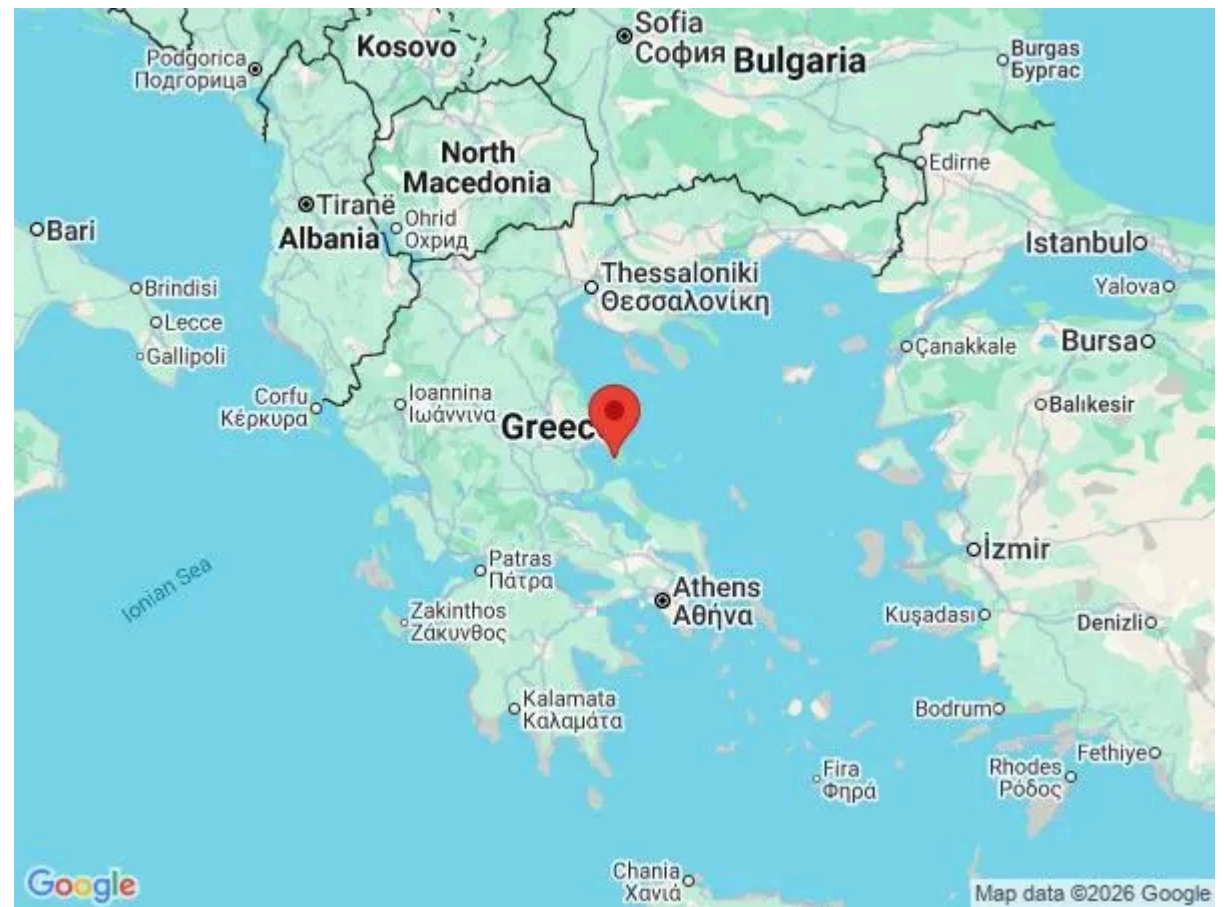

Within the resort itself, Ambrosia Restaurant offers beachfront dining accompanied by live music during summer, while poolside and beachside snack bars provide relaxed, convenient options throughout the day. Guests of all ages are well catered for, with yoga, tennis, aqua aerobics, and creative workshops available for adults. Children can enjoy a playground, sports courts, a kids' club, and communal swimming pools designed for family fun.

Villa Everly's proximity to a sheltered beach ensures effortless access to the sea, with further adventures awaiting along the Aegean coast. Organised boat tours, including visits to Poseidon's Caves and the East Pelion Mini Boat Tour, offer a memorable way to explore the region.

A day trip to the lively city of Volos, located forty-five kilometres away, provides a refreshing contrast with its historical sites, shopping, and vibrant energy.
