

Villa Vardo

Region: Zadar Sleeps: 4

Overview

Tucked within the rolling countryside and surrounded by olive groves, Villa Vardo offers a tranquil escape ideal for couples or small families. With expansive gardens, a private pool, jacuzzi, and sauna, this charming retreat blends rural serenity with modern comforts, all within easy reach of national parks and coastal towns.

The villa's open-plan layout centres around a light-filled living space with a high ceiling, neutral palette, and fully equipped kitchen. A convertible L-shaped sofa and dining table for four complete the interior, while the bright double bedroom shares a sleek shower room with the main living area. The sofa bed accommodates two additional guests if needed.

A standout feature is the generous covered terrace, effectively extending the living space outdoors. Here, guests can dine al fresco in the summer kitchen, unwind in the fresh air, or enjoy the garden's seasonal bounty of figs, apricots, and cherries. An outdoor shower room adds further convenience.

Location & Local Information

Villa Vardo is set near the village of Smilčić, in the peaceful heart of Zadar County. Surrounded by unspoiled countryside and traditional Croatian charm, this tranquil spot offers an authentic rural escape within easy reach of some of the region's most picturesque attractions.

While the immediate area remains delightfully quiet, essential amenities and dining options are a short drive away. Local villages such as Gornji Karin, Donji Karin, and Maslenica, ranging from fourteen to twenty kilometres, offer a selection of shops, cafés, and restaurants, many overlooking the serene waters of Karinsko More. This inland sea, linked to the coast by a narrow estuary, is ideal for swimming, sunbathing, and water sports, all set against a stunning mountainous backdrop.
