A Weekend At The Oscars

Region: The North West Sleeps: 22

Overview

It goes without saying that we're gripped by the Oscars: who and what has been nominated, the promotion leading up to it and the glitz and glamour on the night. So, to celebrate the 96th Academy Awards, we want to throw the ultimate Oscars party for someone and their nearest and dearest.

We've brought the lavish Los Angeles award ceremony to life with our exclusive 'A Weekend At The Oscars' experience, which is available over the official weekend (Friday 8th to Monday 11th March this year).

The luxury package includes a stay at the grand Cartmel Mansion (https://www.oliverstravels.com/britain-ireland/lake-district/cartmel-mansion/), which you'll have all to yourself; the lavish property boasts 10 bedrooms, 10 bathrooms and can sleep up to 20 guests.

This magnificent period property offers swagger and style in big doses. There are plenty of treats in store including a large wine cellar, quirky jukebox, elegant drawing room and of course, an impressive cinema room where the viewing of the eagerly-anticipated award ceremony will take place.

What's more, the property's bedrooms are actually inspired by glamourous hotels so you'll find yourself transported to the likes of Los Angeles' Beverley Hills Hotel, New York's St. Regis or Palm Beach's The Colony Hotel when it comes to turning in for the night.

As well as offering the chance to watch the ceremony in a fabulous manor house, our 'A Weekend At The Oscars' experience is packed full of special touches and activities to make you feel like you're on the red carpet yourself.

In the days leading up to the Sunday evening event, you will have the opportunity to get pampered and prepped, just like any A-lister would.

You'll also have your own private chef on the official awards evening and a fully-stocked fridge for the duration of your 3-night stay.

Itinerary

Arrive at Cartmel Mansion on the evening of Friday 8th March and spend time relaxing and enjoying each other's company in its sophisticated entertainment spaces and landscaped grounds. A stocked fridge and bar await you.

Whether you wake up in the Beverly Hills or New York (the bedrooms, not literally!), Saturday begins at leisure before a team of therapists arrive at the house to indulge you in an afternoon of ultimate relaxation. Choose from a range of therapies including massages, facials and manicures - or treat yourself to one of each!

Your next scheduled appointments start on Sunday lunchtime when a team of beauticians and hairdressers will arrive at the manor for an afternoon of preening. From bouffants to tumbling curls, whatever your red carpet dreams, we have you covered!

As the main event approaches, step into your finery - a designer gown or suit that we will have hired for you and delivered to the property. We want to make sure that you feel your very best.

Once you're ready, descend the sweeping stairs and be transported right into the Oscars themselves.

Enjoy each other's glamorous company but also that of a couple of the nominated themselves. It's rumoured that Cillian Murphy could be in attendance at the manor… Well, someone who looks incredibly like him will be!

The evening will unfold with a chef-cooked, fine-dining meal inspired by the actual 2023 Oscars menu. Finally, round off the experience by sitting back and enjoying the prestigious ceremony in Cartmel Mansion's lavish cinema room.

The 'A Weekend At The Oscars' package costs from £1,250 per person for a 3-night stay based on 10 people sharing, larger groups will need to enquire. The villa rental is on top of this price, so please enquire about the 3-night rate.

Location & Local Information

Nestled on the tranquil shores of Morecambe Bay, Grange-over-Sands is a charming coastal resort that effortlessly combines Victorian elegance with scenic beauty. This idyllic town beckons with its palm-lined promenade, inviting visitors to take leisurely strolls and breathe in the fresh sea air. Grange-over-Sands exudes a peaceful allure, with its ornamental gardens, quaint tea rooms, and boutique shops adding to its distinct character. The town's unique microclimate, sheltered by the surrounding hills, creates a gentle ambiance year-round. Whether it's admiring the stunning views across the bay, exploring the local arts scene, or savoring afternoon tea, Grange-over-Sands offers a timeless escape from the hustle and bustle, where relaxation and rejuvenation are paramount.

Cartmel itself, just a 40 minute walk through the countryside from the Manor, is a charming village in Cumbria, known for its medieval architecture, cobbled streets, quaint stone cottages, and stunning 12th-century priory. It also has a number of fabulous restaurants and pubs to enjoy, notably the 3 Michelin star L'enclume, Simon Rogan's neighbourhood restaurant, as well as the famous Sticky Toffee Pudding Company. Slightly further is the wonderful Michelin restaurant, Heft, just 20 minutes by car.

The town sits on the Southern edge of the Lake District National Park, a true British treasure and a haven of natural beauty that has captured the hearts of adventurers and dreamers for generations. The Lake District's allure is woven around its serene lakes, each with its own character and charm. Windermere, England's largest natural lake, draws visitors with its shimmering waters and opportunities for leisurely cruises. Ullswater, often referred to as the most beautiful lake, enchants with its mirror-like surface surrounded by rolling hills. Derwentwater beckons with its wooded islands and dramatic mountain backdrop, while Coniston Water's tranquil elegance has inspired poets and artists alike. Throughout the majestic fells and dramatic peaks there are lush valleys making the Lake District a paradise for hikers and nature enthusiasts. Scafell Pike proudly stands as England's highest peak, offering panoramic views that reward the intrepid souls who conquer its summit. Striding Edge, a dramatic ridge walk,and Helvellyn's stunning vistas make for unforgettable adventures.

Dotted across the landscape are charming villages that seem to have sprung from the pages of a storybook. Ambleside's bustling streets are lined with quaint shops and inviting cafes. Grasmere, famous for its connection to William Wordsworth, exudes a peaceful charm with its picturesque setting. Hawkshead enchants with its cobbled streets and historic buildings, while Keswick offers a vibrant hub for exploration.

There are plenty of hidden gems and beauty spots to discover. They are scattered throughout the region and include the Ashness Bridge which offers an iconic viewpoint of Derwentwater and its surroundings, while Castlerigg Stone Circle evokes the mysteries of centuries past. The serene Tarn Hows is a tranquil oasis encircled by wooded slopes, perfect for leisurely walks.

Adventure thrives in the Lake District. You can embrace the thrill of water sports on the lakes, from kayaking and paddleboarding to sailing. Cyclists can explore a network of scenic routes, including the challenging Hardknott Pass. For those seeking tranquility, you can simply amble along the countryside, soaking in the panoramic vistas.

The Lake District's influence extends beyond its natural beauty, boasting a rich literary and cultural heritage. The homes of Wordsworth, Beatrix Potter, and John Ruskin provide insights into the lives of these creative luminaries. Museums and galleries celebrate the region's artistic and industrial history.

In every corner of the Lake District, an invitation to explore, unwind, and be captivated by nature's masterpiece awaits. From its glistening lakes and majestic fells to its charming villages and cultural tapestry, the Lake District invites you to immerse yourself in its timeless allure.
