Overview

You will not be disappointed when you vacation in the beachfront Casa Marbre, overlooking the azure waters of the Mediterranean Sea on the Costa Brava coast of northeast Spain. This gorgeous, four-storey, fabulous villa has four fabulous double bedrooms, which can comfortably accommodate up to eight guests, ideal for a fantastic family holiday or a getaway for a group of friends. The casa enjoys immediate beach access from the lowest floor and sits in the charming village of Llafrance and close to picturesque fishing village of Callela de Palafrugell. Furnished terraces boast panoramic beach, bay, and sea views, whilst picture postcard windows look across the ocean and beyond. The interiors are exquisite, furnished in a laid-back, beach house style, dressed with fun complementary artefacts, and decorated in a reflective colour scheme of soft sandy browns and hues of sea blues.

The studio-style main floor has a floor-to-ceiling sea-view window with fold-back doors that bring the outside in and the inside out. The seating area has a funky fabric sofa and a random scattering of chairs and side tables. The incredible and fully-equipped galley-style kitchen has all the appliances you will need for your stay, including a bar with tall stools for breakfast. The first of four beautifully appointed bedrooms on this level is a double bedroom with an ensuite shower room and there is another bedroom with twin beds and a separate bathroom with a shower. Take the stairs to the upper floor, where a sloping ceiling attic is home to two sofa beds and a flat-screen television. Take the stairs to the lower floors, where there are two suites with double beds, ensuite shower rooms, and furnished sea-view terraces. Moving down to the very lowest floor, guests can open the doors directly onto the beach for a bracing swim before breakfast.

Spend the day on the terrace, soak up some rays on the sun loungers, feast outside at the outdoor dining set with dishes fresh off the barbecue, and raise a glass of Cava to the most memorable holiday in the most magical settings!
