Location & Local Information

Ischia is an idyllic isle off the coast of Naples, far more laid-back than the famously bustling southern Italian city. Although the island is only six miles wide, it boasts no shortage of attractions and activities.

Casa Albachiara is just a leisurely 5-minute walk from the picturesque village of Sant'Angelo, an idyllic haven renowned for its captivating beauty and serene tranquility. Stroll through the village's enchanting cobblestone streets, which lead to unbelievable views. Here, you will also find an array of fantastic restaurants, bars, and boutique shops.

However, the crown jewel is undoubtedly the iconic Fumarole Beach (a 6-minute drive away). Here, the island's natural thermal waters provide an indulgent escape, allowing you to immerse yourself in therapeutic relaxation.

Venturing further, Ischia Porto (40-minute drive) combines bustling energy and historical charm, showcasing a mediaeval castle and a scenic harbour for exploration and indulgence. The island's rich history takes centre stage at the Aragonese Castle, an essential stop for enthusiasts of history and nature. The castle is located on a small, dramatically rocky island linked to the main island by a narrow bridge. For a bite to eat after you've explored the castle, head to Garden Fruit Ischia.

Ischia is a volcanic island, and so it boasts over a hundred thermal springs, the water of which is purported to have therapeutic effects. Head to the Negombo thermal baths (a 24-minute drive), where there is also a wonderful garden to explore and a range of different pools.

Another great day out is a hike up Mount Epomeo. It's fairly strenuous, and there are various routes, but the views from the summit are unrivalled.

Ischia's strategic ferry connections offer access to neighbouring coastal towns and islands, with Procida as a standout destination. A mere 15-minute ferry ride brings you to Procida's amazing landscape adorned with impressive architecture, vibrant colours, and maritime heritage, guaranteeing an enriching escapade.
