Location & Local Information

The smaller island of Gozo provides a quiet and calm alternative to its neighbouring Malta, with sparkling seas and plenty of cultural highlights to explore. Just a short twenty-minute drive away is the best snorkelling spot on the island found at Wied il-Ghasri, a coastal charm with a river of seawater finishing up at a small shingle beach, access to the water is via a staircase hacked into the rock. A scenic walk can be enjoyed here along the valley or if you are looking for captivating views why not head to Tal Merzuq Hill.

Gozo's fortified capital Victoria offers a wealth of historical interest, local museums and excellent markets to explore and discover. The towering St. George's Basilica in the centre of Victoria is well worth a visit with the Cathedral Museum just down the street holding over 2000 displays of paintings, archives and clerical vestments. Pick up a heritage tour that will take you through the striking works of art, architecture and spots of intrigue such as The Old Prison located by the Courts of Justice. A market runs from Independence Square every day with a range of stalls, be sure to grab a local pastizz, a delicious local savoury pastry.

If you're looking to enjoy the sparkling sea, then why not head to Gozo's Mgarr ix-Xini, an idyllic spot to jump off the pebbled beach into the cool waters below. A delicious lunch can be found at Rew-Rew a relaxed beachside restaurant offering heaped piles of seafood and excellent calamari. The beach at Dwerja is one of the nicest on Gozo and well worth a visit too.

A boat trip to the Blue Lagoon surrounding the tiny islands off Comino will offer endless luminous blue waters flanked with caves. Take a boat trip from Mgarr Gozo (a short distance away) that offers a day of snorkelling, lounging and relaxing in this popular beauty spot.

Why not explore this pretty island in an unconventional and eco-friendly way by hiring a Segway and a local guide who will take you to a range of sculpted cliffs, salt pans and lesser-known beauty spots. Pick up a tour from Rotunda St in Xewkija.
