Overview

Perched majestically atop a sun-kissed hillside, Villa Furet offers a taste of modern living, gazing out over the Mediterranean Sea, the bay of Villefranche, and the enchanting Cap Ferrat. Around a 20-30 minute drive from the glamorous hubs of Nice and Monaco, this extraordinary family retreat promises an unforgettable escape on the French Riviera.

As you drive up the winding roads towards this elegant villa, you are greeted by sleek lines and contemporary elegance. Step into the second floor, accessible from the road level, to find the living and dining spaces, and fully equipped modern kitchen, adorned with large sliding doors that unveil panoramic vistas of the glittering sea. The level is completed by two sumptuous ensuite bedrooms.

On the first floor, two further elegantly appointed bedrooms await, including the master suite, with its own terrace overlooking the pool and sea. Here, your mornings can begin with the gentle lull of waves and end with sunset hues dancing across the horizon.

The ground floor is home to a great entertainment space, with a spacious TV room equipped with a DVD and music centre, and a window revealing the depths of the infinity pool - a whimsical touch that adds to the villa's allure.

Outside, you'll find a terraced garden with mature trees and an artificial lawn, perfect for al fresco gatherings. The infinity pool, which can be heated on request for your comfort, invites you to bask in the warm sun, while a covered terrace with dining facilities sets the stage for memorable meals under the stars.

Villa Furet is positioned in Villefranche-sur-Mer, a picturesque town on the Mediterranean coastline with vibrant azure waters and a charming bay framed by colourful buildings. The narrow, cobbled streets wind through the historic Old Town, lined with quaint shops, cafes and boutiques. Guests can enjoy the serene beaches, explore the rich cultural heritage and easily venture to neighbouring attractions.

Complete with its enviable location, Villa Furet truly offers luxury living amidst the timeless allure of the French Riviera.

Location & Local Information

Villa Furet can be found in the heart of the French Riviera, just a 20-30 minute drive from both Nice and Monaco. This prime location allows guests to relax and unwind in a hillside retreat while remaining within easy reach of the vibrant coastal cities.

The villa provides a central hub to explore the region, with the famed glamour of Cannes around an hour drive away and the allure of the Italian border just forty minutes to the east. Even closer, just beyond the villa's doorstep, are a number of enchanting, perched villages, showcasing the rich tapestry of the region. One of which is Èze, with its world-famous hill top panoramic views of the coastline, just a 10-minute drive away.

In the nearby town of Nice, visitors can explore its vibrant markets, historic sites, and the renowned Promenade des Anglais. To the east lies the glamorous principality of Monaco, offering a taste of luxury with its iconic casino, upscale shops, and the scenic Jardin Exotique.

Nature enthusiasts can explore the surrounding hills and hiking trails, while art aficionados may find inspiration in the Fondation Maeght and its impressive collection.

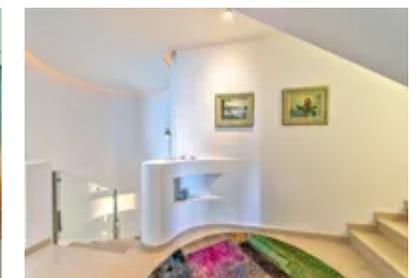

For those seeking sun-soaked days on the Mediterranean shores, the beach is a leisurely stroll away, complemented by local shops and restaurants. Additionally, day trips to the charming towns of Antibes and Cannes unveil more of the French Riviera's beauty, with their sandy beaches, cultural events and lively atmospheres.

Villa Furet, perched above the sparkling sea, promises not just a luxurious retreat but a gateway to the cultural, culinary, and natural treasures that define the South of France.
