

Villa Corinaldo

Region: Le Marche Sleeps: 7

Overview

Villa Corinaldo, a captivating hillside retreat, welcomes up to seven guests to experience a serene and picturesque escape. Nestled amid lush gardens and within convenient walking distance of Corinaldo's centre, this residence embodies the perfect blend of traditional charm and modern comfort.

The residence boasts a classic farmhouse design meticulously restored using local materials, creating an inviting haven that feels like a true home away from home. The house exudes simplicity and elegance, adorned with delightful details such as rustic ceiling beams, traditional window shutters, and a country-style kitchen that bestows character upon the space. Despite its rustic feel, Villa Corinaldo is equipped with contemporary amenities, including Wi-Fi, air conditioning, and Satellite TVs, ensuring guests enjoy a seamless and up-to-date experience.

The ground floor fosters a convivial atmosphere, as interconnected rooms provide a social space where guests can engage in conversation while preparing meals and then seamlessly transition to the living room for drinks by the fireplace. The spacious living area is adorned with bookshelves stocked with a diverse collection, offering a cosy nook for guests to unwind. Adjacent, a study area with a desk and keyboard caters to musical enthusiasts.

The ground floor also hosts a character-filled country-style kitchen, complete with a dining table and essential appliances. A bathroom with a shower completes this level, offering convenience.

Ascending to the upper floor reveals three inviting bedrooms – two doubles and a versatile room accommodating up to three guests, customisable to suit group dynamics. These bedrooms share two generously appointed shower rooms.

Outdoors, a pretty porch adorned with climbing flowers provides access to the garden, featuring a covered terrace ideal for al fresco dining. The garden extends to offer comfortable seating areas, sun loungers, and a private swimming pool – a delightful retreat for both relaxation and recreation. The younger guests can revel in the joy of a refreshing swim followed by table tennis matches in the open air.

The proximity of the historic town of Corinaldo, just a 1.5km stroll away, allows guests to conveniently explore its cobblestone streets, partake in morning coffees, or pick up freshly baked bread. Moreover, Villa Corinaldo serves as an excellent base for exploring neighbouring historic towns, meandering through the picturesque countryside, or indulging in lasy days on the nearby beaches. This delightful abode seamlessly marries tradition with modernity, offering a quintessential Italian getaway.

Location & Local Information

A holiday to Le Marche, Italy, offers a perfect blend of rustic charm, historical exploration, and coastal day trips. Nestled amidst the rolling hills, Villa Corinaldo provides a tranquil retreat with panoramic rural vistas while being conveniently located within walking distance of Corinaldo, acclaimed as one of Italy's most beautiful villages.

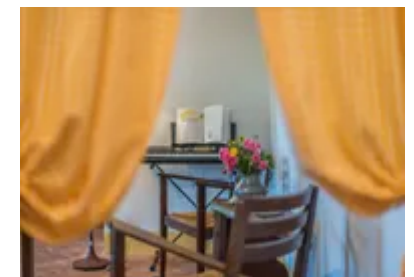

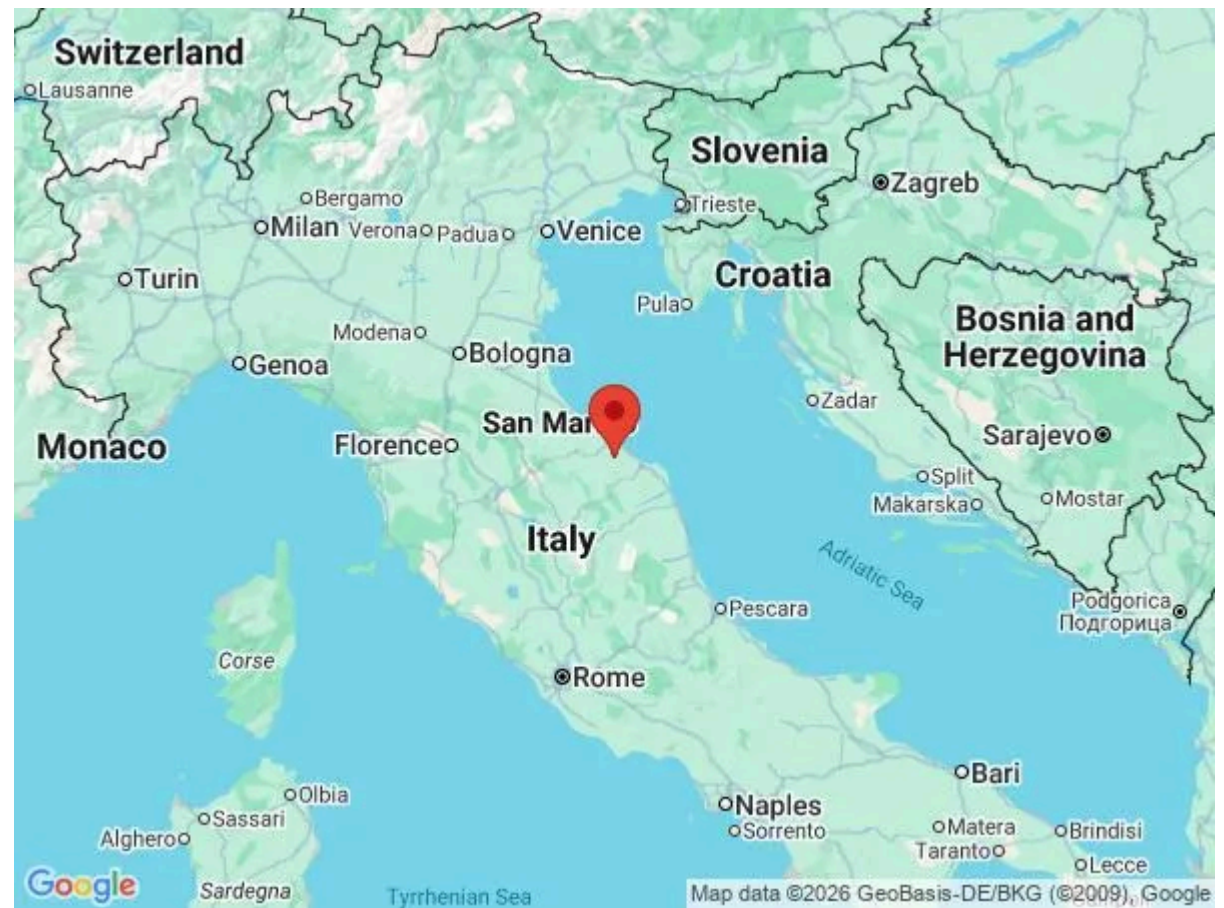

One of the highlights of a stay in Corinaldo is the opportunity to explore its well-preserved medieval walls and battlements, which stretch an impressive 912 meters around the village. Walking along this ancient fortification provides not only a dose of history but also stunning views of the surrounding countryside. The Piaggia stairway is another architectural gem, showcasing the town's character with its intricate stonework and steps which weave upwards through the local historic brick homes.

For those with an interest in history and culture, Corinaldo boasts local museums that delve into the region's past. These museums offer insights into the town's rich heritage, from its medieval roots to more recent developments. Visitors can immerse themselves in the local art and history, gaining a deeper understanding of the area.

The town itself is a trove of delightful experiences, with quaint cafes, craft shops, and inviting restaurants lining its narrow streets. Local artisans showcase their craftsmanship, providing an opportunity to purchase unique souvenirs or simply enjoy the ambiance of the picturesque surroundings. In addition to exploring Corinaldo, a day trip to Senigallia, just 20km away, promises a change of scenery. This charming coastal town is renowned for its sandy beaches along the Adriatic Sea. Visitors can relax by the shore, indulge in water sports, or take a leisurely stroll along the vibrant seafront.

For those seeking a more extensive adventure, Ancona, 50km from Corinaldo, offers a captivating mix of history and modernity. The city's historic centre, with its impressive cathedral and ancient Roman arch, contrasts with the bustling harbour and contemporary architecture. Ancona also provides access to beautiful beaches, allowing travellers to soak up the sun and enjoy the Adriatic coastline.

In conclusion, a holiday to Le Marche, centred around the idyllic Villa Corinaldo, promises a diverse and enriching experience. From exploring medieval walls and stairways to immersing oneself in local culture, the region provides a perfect balance of relaxation and exploration. Day trips to Senigallia and Ancona further enhance the holiday, offering coastal escapes and urban adventures.
