

Trulli Francesco

Region: Puglia Sleeps: 10

Overview

Located amidst the serene expanse of the Apulian countryside, Trulli Francesco is a charming five bedroom retreat, just 3 km away from the enchanting village of Polignano a Mare. This quaint villa, exuding a quintessentially Mediterranean allure, rests atop a gentle hill, offering panoramic vistas of the shimmering sea. Comprising a sprawling stone lamia alongside an adjoining trullo and a newly built structure adjacent to the inviting swimming pool, Trulli Francesco invites holidaymakers to indulge in its rustic elegance.

Step inside, and you're greeted by a harmonious blend of lounge, dining, and kitchen spaces within the main structure. The lamia entrance welcomes you with a well-appointed kitchen boasting modern conveniences, complemented by a dining table strategically positioned to capture the mesmerising sea views. Adjacent lies a bathroom, facilitating convenience and comfort. Descend a few steps, and you'll find a tranquil double bedroom offering direct access to the outdoors, inviting you to embrace the natural splendour of your surroundings.

The stone trullo unveils another delightful surprise, housing a second double bedroom complete with its private bathroom featuring a refreshing shower, ensuring privacy and relaxation.

The new structure, overlooking the pool, boasts three independent bedrooms, each equipped with its bathroom featuring invigorating showers and mini fridges for added convenience. One of these rooms boasts access to a secluded citrus grove, offering a tranquil oasis for intimate gatherings or moments of solitude. This unique layout, with ample room for privacy and seclusion when needed, makes Trulli Francesco an ideal accommodation choice for larger groups.

Venturing outdoors, a spacious covered area entices you to revel in the breathtaking panorama of the pool and the sea. Here, an outdoor kitchen awaits, beckoning culinary adventures amidst nature's embrace. Adorned with stone barbecue and wood-burning oven, it promises delightful evenings under the starlit sky. The generously sized swimming pool, measuring 5 x 10 metres, boasts sun beds and a refreshing outdoor shower, inviting moments of leisure and repose - and more importantly, is large enough for the kids' inflatables!

Trulli Francesco effortlessly connects you to the region's most captivating villages and tourist destinations, including Monopoli, Castellana Grotte, and Alberobello. Additionally, guests can have access to a range of handy amenities such as cots and high chairs, ensuring a seamless and comfortable stay, with provisions available upon request for a nominal fee. Whether savouring the rustic charm indoors or embracing the allure of the outdoor spaces, Trulli Francesco promises an unforgettable retreat immersed in the soul-stirring beauty of Apulia
