

Villa Ghiacciolo

Region: Puglia Sleeps: 12

Overview

Situated in one of the most enchanting spots in Monopoli, Villa Ghiacciolo stands as a charming relic from the 1920s, offering a delightful retreat in the heart of lido Santo Stefano. As you stroll through the gate, a quaint avenue leads you to this picturesque cottage, complete with its own private internal parking, promising both convenience and seclusion.

Step inside, and you're greeted by the grandeur of the main living space. The expansive lounge boasts lofty vaulted ceilings and original cement tile floors, evoking a sense of timeless elegance. A front French window frames captivating vistas of the sea, inviting you to bask in its mesmerising allure. Here, a generous table with chairs and a plush sofa beckon you to unwind and savour the company of family and friends.

Villa Ghiacciolo features four double bedrooms and two single bedrooms, each with its private ensuite bathroom and offering restful reprieve after a day of exploration, while, for the little ones, a cot and high chair are available upon request. The villa's kitchen, equipped with every modern convenience, stands ready to indulge your culinary whims, ensuring that every meal is a delectable affair.

Venture outdoors, and you'll discover a veritable oasis of tranquillity overlooking the sea. A spacious alfresco area beckons with its inviting table, chairs, and cosy sofas, offering the perfect vantage point to drink in breathtaking sunsets in blissful serenity. The property, enveloped by fencing and adorned with a gate leading to the sea, exudes an air of seclusion and security.

For those eager to explore, the nearby Lido di Santo Stefano beckons with its characteristic charm, while the bustling centre of Monopoli, a mere 2 km away, promises a myriad of dining and shopping delights. From the historic allure of Polignano a Mare to the captivating wonders of the Castellana caves, a wealth of treasures awaits just beyond your doorstep.

Whether you seek respite or adventure, Villa Ghiacciolo invites you to embark on a journey of unforgettable memories in the heart of Puglia's coastal splendour.
