Overview

Troia Beach is an exquisite haven nestled on the Lisbon Coast of Portugal, where luxury meets natural splendour in an unparalleled fusion of comfort and style. After three years of meticulous renovation, this stunning beach house stands as a testament to meticulous craftsmanship, offering a wonderful experience amidst the serene beauty of the Troia Peninsula.

Strategically located between Comporta and Troia, Troia Beach is ensconced within the pristine surroundings of the Sado Estuary Nature Reserve, approximately 130 kilometres south of Lisbon's bustling city centre. A mere five-minute stroll leads you to the tranquil Atlantic Beach, providing a retreat from the ordinary and an immersion into the extraordinary.

This exceptional villa is situated within an exclusive condominium with 24/7 security service and access to all the condominium facilities. With three sumptuous suites and two bedrooms, including a specially dedicated children's room, Troia Beach offers beautiful accommodation for those seeking some holiday tranquility.

Inside, you will discover a practical open-plan layout, seamlessly blending formal and informal living spaces ideal for entertaining guests. The chef's kitchen, adorned with burnt walnut wood and black Zimbabwe granite, features high-end appliances and is complemented by a cellar stocked with fine wines and a gin bar for crafting bespoke cocktails.

Indulge in ultimate relaxation within the villa's opulent amenities, from the Spa and Movie Theatre to the Snooker room and fully equipped gym. Each suite and bedroom, adorned with amenities by Salvatore Ferragamo, offers a sanctuary of luxury and comfort, complete with safes and mini bars for your convenience.

Outside, the allure continues with a heated pool, jacuzzi, barbecue area, fire pit, and lush gardens, providing ample opportunities for outdoor enjoyment and socialising under the sun or stars. Additionally, a separate guest house ensures privacy and convenience for additional guests or personal staff.

Troia Beach goes beyond mere accommodation, embracing artistry and culture by showcasing works by local artists available for purchase, allowing guests to take a piece of Portugal's vibrant creativity home with them.

What we love

- After three years of meticulous renovation, this stunning beach house stands as a testament to exceptional craftsmanship!
- Guests will be only minutes away from amazing leisure destinations like the "One Troia José Mourinho Training Centre" and an incredible 18-hole golf course designed by renowned American architect Trent Jones Senior.
- The site offers cultural activities, such as visits to the Roman ruins - once the largest fish-salting industrial centre of the Roman Empire.
- This villa also can provide nursing, medical, and physiotherapy/osteopathy services. This makes the property an attractive option for guests who might otherwise avoid traveling due to the need for ongoing clinical care related to physical limitations.

What you should know...

- The Soltroia condominium has a tennis court, maintenance circuit, basketball and futsal field, and a playground for the younger ones.
- You can have the in-home experience of wine and cheese tasting from Portuguese producers or even an in-house chef; please enquire for details.
- A concierge service can be provided for your comfort and support, helping with your table reservation for lunch or dinner.
- Please note that the 5th bathroom is part of the outside grounds and not in the main house.
