

Villa Gianetta

Region: Amalfi Coast Sleeps: 4

Overview

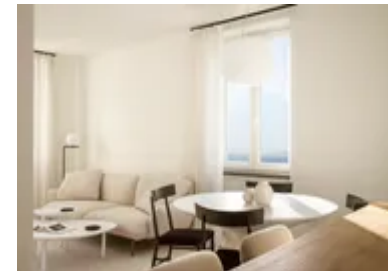

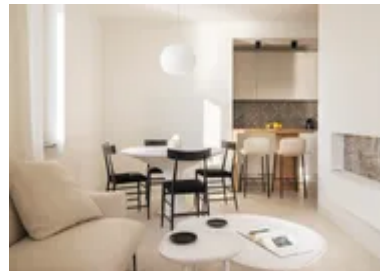

Nestled along the enchanting Amalfi Coast, Villa Gianetta is a serene three-bedroom villa that accommodates 4 to 6 guests. The villa spans multiple levels and has a minimalist interior that blends natural materials and neutral tones, maximizing natural light and panoramic views. The ground floor features an inviting living room and fully equipped kitchen, where guests can dine at a cosy four-seat table or relax in the comfortable sitting area.

The bedrooms are spread across different floors for added privacy. The first-floor king bedroom offers a smart TV and ensuite bathroom with a shower, while the second-floor studio can be converted into a twin bedroom, perfect for teenagers or young adults, complete with an ensuite bathroom. The dependence, accessible via 140 steps, includes a double bedroom and an external bathroom.

The villa's outdoor spaces are captivating, with seven terraced gardens, a charming outdoor living room beneath a chestnut-wood pergola, and a plunge pool that seemingly merges with the sea. Further down, a private sundeck offers a peaceful retreat, ideal for sunbathing and swimming. Located just 10 minutes from Amalfi, Villa Gianetta provides a peaceful escape with easy access to the area's stunning beaches, reached via a scenic path of 250 steps.

Location & Local Information

Villa Gianetta is a stunning holiday destination along Italy's enchanting Amalfi Coast. Perched amidst lush hillsides, it offers breathtaking views of the Mediterranean Sea and easy access to some of the region's most famous towns. A scenic drive along the winding coastal road, known for its dramatic hairpin bends, leads to the picturesque towns of Positano, Praiano, Amalfi, and the cliffside town of Ravello, famous for its awe-inspiring belvedere.

From Villa Gianetta, visitors can easily explore these vibrant locales by bus or ferry, avoiding the busy summer traffic. Boat trips to the islands of Capri and Ischia provide a peaceful escape, while excursions to historic Naples, Sorrento, and the ruins of Pompeii and Herculaneum reveal the region's rich cultural heritage.

The Amalfi Coast is known for its charming cafes, art galleries, and seafood restaurants that line the cliffs. For a truly memorable experience, arrange a private boat tour to hidden beaches and dine at seaside eateries recommended by local captains. With its stunning scenery, rich history, and delectable cuisine, Villa Gianetta offers an unforgettable Mediterranean retreat.

What we love

- Located just 10 minutes from Amalfi, the villa is tucked away, offering a quiet retreat from crowded tourist areas.
- Enjoy al fresco dining under a chestnut-wood pergola, swim in the plunge pool, or relax on the west-facing sundeck with direct water access.
- A scenic path of 250 steps leads to nearby sandy beaches, perfect for enjoying the Mediterranean coast.

What you should know...

- The villa's terraced layout requires navigating numerous steps, including 140 steps to the dependence and 250 steps to the beach, which may be challenging for those with mobility issues or younger children.
- This property is a 10-minute drive from the nearest town and restaurant, however there is no parking at the villa as it is on a main road. We recommend transfers.
- While this property comfortably sleeps up to 6 guests, please note that two guests will be accommodated in the office, which can be converted into a twin bedroom.
- Please note that the plunge pool and access to the water is available only in summer.
- This property accepts children 14 years or older.
