

Maison Farrah

Region: Aquitaine   Sleeps: 6

Overview

Located on the cusp of several beautiful villages, this spacious and beautiful stone house with its own private pool is a great spot for a French getaway. Arrive here and feel at home. Upon entering, you are welcomed by a spacious open living room whose fireplace stands as the centrepiece of the room. Adjacent, the dining room is naturally lit by the large sliding doors that open onto the outside terrace. The open-plan design of the property is perfect for a group of sociable friends and family, who can seamlessly move between different rooms. You can play table football on the mezzanine above, whilst others can sit on the comfortable sofa below.

Let's not forget the kitchen, where there's plenty of space to whip up your favourite meals for the group using the impressive oven – cooking is no chore at Maison Farrah! With another dining table in this room, there are lots of areas to enjoy meals. Step out onto the terrace to find a barbeque, which is perfect for grilling in the summer months.

Make sure to enjoy the private pool, which is ideal for cooling off in during the warmth of French summer. Alternatively, lounge on the poolside in the comfortable furniture – perfect for those who like to read on holiday. Whether you are looking for a home away from home, or seeking new surroundings, Maison Farrah offers opportunities for both. With beaches, villages and countryside pastures all at hand, there will never be a dull moment at this charming villa.

Location & Local Information

Situated along the picturesque Atlantic coast of southwestern France, Maison Farrah's nearest village is nestled within the beautiful landscape of the Charente-Maritime region. Conveniently located with proximity to both beaches and countryside, the region offers a delightful escape for travellers seeking either relaxation or exploration.

History buffs will appreciate the rich heritage of the area, with traces of its past evident in the quaint architecture and historic landmarks. Nearby, the town of Royan boasts remnants of its Roman past, including the intriguing Romanesque Church of Saint-Pierre, which dates back to the 12th century. Further inland, the medieval town of Saintes offers a glimpse into France's ancient Gallo-Roman history, with impressive ruins and monuments scattered throughout its charming streets.

Those with a penchant for nature will find themselves enchanted by the diverse landscapes surrounding Maison Farrah. From the golden sands and azure waters of the nearby beaches to the lush forests and vineyards of the countryside, there's no shortage of scenic beauty to explore. There is something for everyone here – whatever age!
