Overview

Welcome to your next getaway in the heart of the French countryside! In Southwest France, this historic holiday home built in 1791 offers the perfect blend of rustic original features and modern décor, having been recently renovated.

When not exploring the nearby sights, guests can unwind in the outdoor hot tub, surrounded by greenery, whilst cosy evenings can be spent together in the living area, where rustic wooden beams meet contemporary furnishings. The kitchen is the perfect space to create dishes using local ingredients, while the terrace, complete with a barbecue and seating area, provides the ideal setting for al-fresco dining under the stars.

Complete with one double bedroom and a bathroom with walk-in shower, this is an idyllic retreat for a couple seeking a relaxing escape. With proximity to plenty of outdoor pursuits, this is a great choice for two! The Charente region is most famous for its production of Cognac, a world-renowned brandy, and its picturesque landscapes dotted with historic Romanesque churches and charming villages. The region is also known for its scenic rivers, such as the Charente River, which provide opportunities for boating and leisurely exploration during your stay!
