Overview

Set within a centuries-old olive grove, Dans Les Pierres is a charming retreat close to the hilltop villages of the Balagne region. The renovated stone barn, now a rustic yet elegant property, welcomes up to eight guests, near the village of Feliceto. Accessible via a winding 1300-metre unpaved road (with the option of a four-wheel drive car provided by the owner upon request), it offers guests a peaceful getaway surrounded by beautiful scenery.

The main building comprises a generously sized living room, dining area and fully equipped kitchen with two double bedrooms and bathrooms. A few steps away are the two annexes, each complete with a double bedroom and ensuite. Spend afternoons basking in the Corsican sun, cooling off with a dip in the shimmering pool, and evenings dining al fresco as the sun begins to set.

Despite its idyllic seclusion, Dans Les Pierres enjoys convenient proximity to the seaside town of L'Île-Rousse, a mere 20-minute drive away, and the stunning beaches of Calvi, just 35 minutes by car. Food lovers will also delight in the local culinary offerings, including wines from Patrimonio, honey and chestnuts, and the renowned Corsican sausage.
