

Bastide Neville

Region: Normandy Sleeps: 10

Overview

Situated adjacent to a historical manoir which once hosted King Henry IV of France, and adjoined by an impressively well-preserved feudal castle, is Bastide Neville, a wonderful Louis XIII style residence in the heart of Normandy.

With its charming timber-framed façade and pristine, manicured gardens, this beautifully restored historic property whispers stories of a bygone era from every corner while benefitting from all the modern comforts. Enter the large historic hall with a 17th century white stone vaulted ceiling before relaxing in the living area, flooded with natural light thanks to the floor to ceiling glass windows overlooking the southwest-facing terrace. Also inside the home, you can find the lovely indoor pool with counter-current, and a luxurious hot tub. With five bedrooms and three bathrooms, the bastide comfortably sleeps up to ten guests.

At the foot of the castle, on the site of the dry moat, guests can enjoy activities organised by appointment, or take the bicycles provided for a spin to admire the beautiful landscapes of Normandy. Delight in leisurely strolls through nearby villages, visit historical landmarks, and sample the culinary delights of the region before coming home to put your feet up by the fire with a glass of local tippie.

Location & Local Information

Bastide Neville's enchanting location offers a wonderful blend of history, culture, and natural beauty, making it an ideal destination for those seeking an authentic French experience. The property itself is part of a small remote hamlet with the nearest town and shops a short drive away.

Nature enthusiasts will delight in exploring the verdant countryside which has captivated and inspired Impressionist painters like Monet and Pissarro. Enjoy peaceful walks or bike rides through scenic trails, or have a picnic by the serene riverbanks. The local hiking trails take you through Normandy's countryside, leading to picturesque pathways along the Seine and nearby 15th-century water mills. For those interested in history and culture, the nearby Château de Gaillon and Monet's gardens offer a glimpse into Renaissance architecture and artistic inspiration. The region's culinary delights are a foodie's paradise, with Michelin-star and Michelin-guide restaurants within a 20-50 minute drive from the bastide. Of course, local cafes and bistros also provide authentic French cuisine, perfect for any occasion.

Outdoor adventures abound with bike rides and rock-climbing routes, while the vibrant towns and villages nearby, including the historical town of Lyons la Foret, are home to charming cafes, bars, and shops. If you don't mind driving a bit further afield, you can visit the famous ocean cliffs of Étretat, the Casino of Deauville, and the D-Day Normandy beaches.
