

Villa Belle Eclat

Region: French Riviera (Cote D'Azur) Sleeps: 8

Overview

Between Saint-Tropez and Hyères, only a short stroll from idyllic beaches and restaurants, this architect-designed villa on the French Riviera enjoys the most magnificent sea views. Sit out on a warm summer evening with an apéritif in hand and gaze out towards the Îles d'Hyères.

You can appreciate the vistas as soon as you walk into the top-level of the house with its two double en suite bedrooms both opening to the upper balcony overlooking the Mediterranean. The next level down is home to the stylish living space, modern kitchen and dining area, again leading out to a sea-facing balcony – such a scenic spot throughout the day, especially as the sky changes colour at night.

There is another double and a twin on this level, alongside a family shower room, whilst the fifth double bedroom can be found on the lower level near the swimming pool. All bedrooms are air-conditioned and have Egyptian cotton bed linen whilst furnishings throughout are classic and contemporary. Other great features include TV with English/French channels and an Amazon Firestick, a DVD player, books and games as well as a sound system.

The Mediterranean garden is beautiful with terraces so perfectly positioned for those 180 degree sea vistas. Dine al-fresco beneath the shade, relax by the poolside bar or watch fellow guests enjoy the swimming pool as you sit back in the outdoor lounge. There is also a traditional boules court on the lower level.

Stroll down the winding lane to reach the coastal road which leads to a small handful of seasonal restaurants and a couple of gorgeous beaches, the nearest being a small and wild sandy bay with turquoise sea backed by rocks, reached via steps through the pine trees. Plage d'Aiguebelle is another picture-perfect place for swimming or sunbathing at one of the summer beachside restaurants.

The attractive seaside resort of Le Lavandou is only 5km away, loved for its authentic French Riviera charm, pretty fountains and more glorious beaches (especially loved by divers thanks to the clear water). Boat trips depart the marina towards the incredible Îles d'Hyères – a day trip to one of the islands is a must!

Elsewhere, venture along the coast to the pristine beaches and vineyards around La Croix Valmer, then continue to experience the glitz and glamour of Saint-Tropez and it's iconic Plage de Pampelonne.

Closer to home, explore the medieval flower-filled lanes of Bormes-les-Mimosas, follow wonderful coastal and mountain hiking routes, hire bikes to cycle from beach to beach or just make the most of your stunning terraces facing the sea at your elegant Côte d'Azur holiday abode.

A car is recommended to be able to fully explore the region but there is a bus stop on the coastal road with buses towards Toulon or Saint-Tropez (do check seasonal timetables in advance).

You can walk down the hill to the coastal road where you will find a small handful of seasonal restaurants as well as a wild sandy beach with turquoise-coloured sea, reached via steps through the pine trees. Head there early if staying in the height of the summer – this is such an idyllic spot. A little further along, Plage d'Aiguebelle (1.5km) is another pretty beach which is easier to access and home to summer beachside restaurants with sun loungers to hire.

Le Lavandou (5km) is a much-loved French Riviera seaside resort with restaurants, shops and other glorious beaches. Look out for the Thursday morning Provençal market, soak up the charm of the old town, visit the many art galleries, admire the fishing boats and yachts swaying in the marina and partake in a range of seasonal watersports – this coastline is a paradise for keen snorkellers and diving enthusiasts.

In the summer you can catch a boat to the wonderful Île de Porquerolles where you should hire bikes and cycle to your heart's content passing olive groves, vineyards and eucalyptus trees to pristine beaches. Back on the mainland, keen walkers have a choice of hikes along the coast (Le Sentier des Douaniers) or through the Massif des Maures.

The gorgeous village of Bormes-les-Mimosas (9km) is not to be missed with its medieval flower-filled lanes.

Meanwhile, spend time in the family-friendly resort of Cavalaire-sur-Mer (15km), head to the vineyards of La Croix-Valmer (21km) and discover the beauty of the beaches and walking paths around Plage de Gigaro (23km).

The allure of Saint-Tropez (33km) also awaits, one of the France’s most famous destinations, as do the watersports and exclusive beach clubs of Pampelonne Beach (38km).
