As you enter this multi-generational labour of love, you are greeted by a harmonious blend of rustic authenticity and contemporary elegance. The interiors of the stone house and historic trulli complex have been meticulously restored, ensuring that every corner exudes an air of refined opulence while preserving the structures' ancient allure.

The spacious living areas boast a seamless fusion of traditional Italian aesthetics and modern comforts. In the sitting room, plush furnishings complement the rustic backdrop of thick white stone walls, inviting you to unwind in serene tranquillity. Meanwhile, the dining room exudes a cosy ambience, adorned with conventional Apulian furniture and tastefully upcycled agricultural tools that pay homage to the villa's rich heritage.

Three pools, including an indoor spa pool within the Trulli complex, offer a refreshing respite from the Italian heat. A heated outdoor jacuzzi sets the stage for romantic evenings under a canopy of stars.
