

La Pivoine

Region: French Riviera (Cote D'Azur) Sleeps: 12

Overview

Appreciate both the authenticity and glamour of the French Riviera at La Pivoine, a beautiful home set in stunning gardens with vineyard views close to medieval Gassin yet also near the allure of Saint-Tropez.

This is a special place where you can choose to relax and truly get away from it all or explore the Côte d'Azur to your heart's content. Set amongst the vines of a nearby wine châteaux, your natural surroundings are idyllic. The interiors are characterful yet refined with six inviting bedrooms (five of which are en suite) and air-conditioning. We adore the traditionally tiled floors of the living-dining room with arched French windows opening out to the terrace and swimming pool. The Provençal kitchen is full of charm – a chef can be arranged on request.

The bougainvillea-clad villa is set within 5000m² of landscaped grounds including gorgeous terraces, a pétanque court amongst the trees and a huge sculpture as well as the heated swimming pool. Sit within the courtyard garden with a chilled glass of local Côtes de Provence accompanied by the gentle sound of the trickling fountain. Discover the day bed overlooking the surrounding vines and enjoy al-fresco meals on the main terrace at any time of the day. As you wander around the garden, admire lavender, oleander, roses, jasmine and citrus trees alongside other Mediterranean colours and scents.

Hilltop Gassin is only 1.5km by car, a delightful village with a handy grocery store, restaurant terraces and glorious vistas of the sea – it is officially classified as one of France's 'Plus Beaux Villages'. In the other direction, head towards Port Grimaud with its little canals, often called the 'Venice of the Côte d'Azur'. Flower-filled Grimaud and Ramatuelle are two other French Riviera gems not to be missed whilst the forests of the Maures hills are waiting to be explored – this area is wonderful for hiking, cycling and horse-riding.

Of course the main attraction of the region has to be Saint-Tropez, one of southern France's most famous destinations. As well as soaking up its glitzy ambience, take time to explore its medieval lanes and experience the bustling twice-weekly Provençal market at Place des Lices. You can also charter your very own yacht and skipper, an amazing way to tour this spectacular part of the French Riviera coastline.

Within a 15-minute drive (summer traffic dependent) you can be wandering around Saint-Tropez (6.5km) admiring its impressive marina, upmarket restaurants and high-end boutiques. Loved by the rich and famous, get to know the more authentic side of this former fishing village as you explore its old quarter and experience the twice-weekly Provençal market at Place des Lices.

So many boat trips depart Saint-Tropez or you can charter your own yacht for a fantastic day out, an unforgettable way to tour the French Riviera coastline – do always book well in advance.

Port Grimaud (5km) is another wonderful place to discover with its canals, best explored by boat, and weekly summer night market. Meanwhile, flower-filled Grimaud (10km) will enchant you with its rich heritage, historic charm and glorious views of Saint-Tropez bay.

Venturing further afield, partake in a range of outdoor activities across the Maures hills and forests including cycling, mountain biking, hiking and horse-riding passing oak and chestnut forests.
