

Villa Magnum

Region: French Riviera (Cote D'Azur) Sleeps: 10

Overview

With mesmerising vistas of the Mediterranean from its upper terrace, this architect-designed villa will impress its guests in every way, close to Plage de l'Escalet and well located for reaching Pampelonne Beach and Saint-Tropez.

It is all about chic open-plan living on the upper floor with its stylish furnishings, contemporary kitchen-diner and floor-to-ceiling sliding windows opening out to the terrace with its adjustable cover for al-fresco dining and lounging and a magnificent sea view over the tree-tops.

Villa Magnum sleeps 10 guests across its five bedrooms including the top-floor master bedroom with a king-size double, open-plan bathroom and private terrace facing the sea. The pool level below is home to four further doubles with queen-size beds and en suite shower rooms, all with doors leading to the poolside garden and terrace with sun loungers.

A few steps away is the 18m long pool, ideal for serious swimming or just cooling off from the summer sun. More stairs lead down to the lower garden level where a summer kitchen and dining area overlook the pétanque court.

Drive down to the pretty bay at Plage de l'Escalet, a lovely spot for snorkelling in the crystal-clear sea. Discover wonderful coastal hiking paths from here or just soak up the vibrant ambience as French families gather on the beach in the height of the summer.

Dine out in nearby Ramatuelle around 6km away, a picture-perfect hilltop village with markets, art galleries, café terraces and glorious views of the coast below. For a contrasting experience, pre-book one of the exclusive beach clubs on Plage de Pampelonne around 8km away or continue to Saint-Tropez to explore its enchanting old quarter and impressive marina, one of the French Riviera's most famous destinations.

Location & Local Information

This stunning architect-designed villa is perched above the French Riviera coastline around 2km from Plage de l'Escalet. Here you are well located for visiting Ramatuelle and the iconic Pampelonne Beach whilst Saint-Tropez is only 13km away.

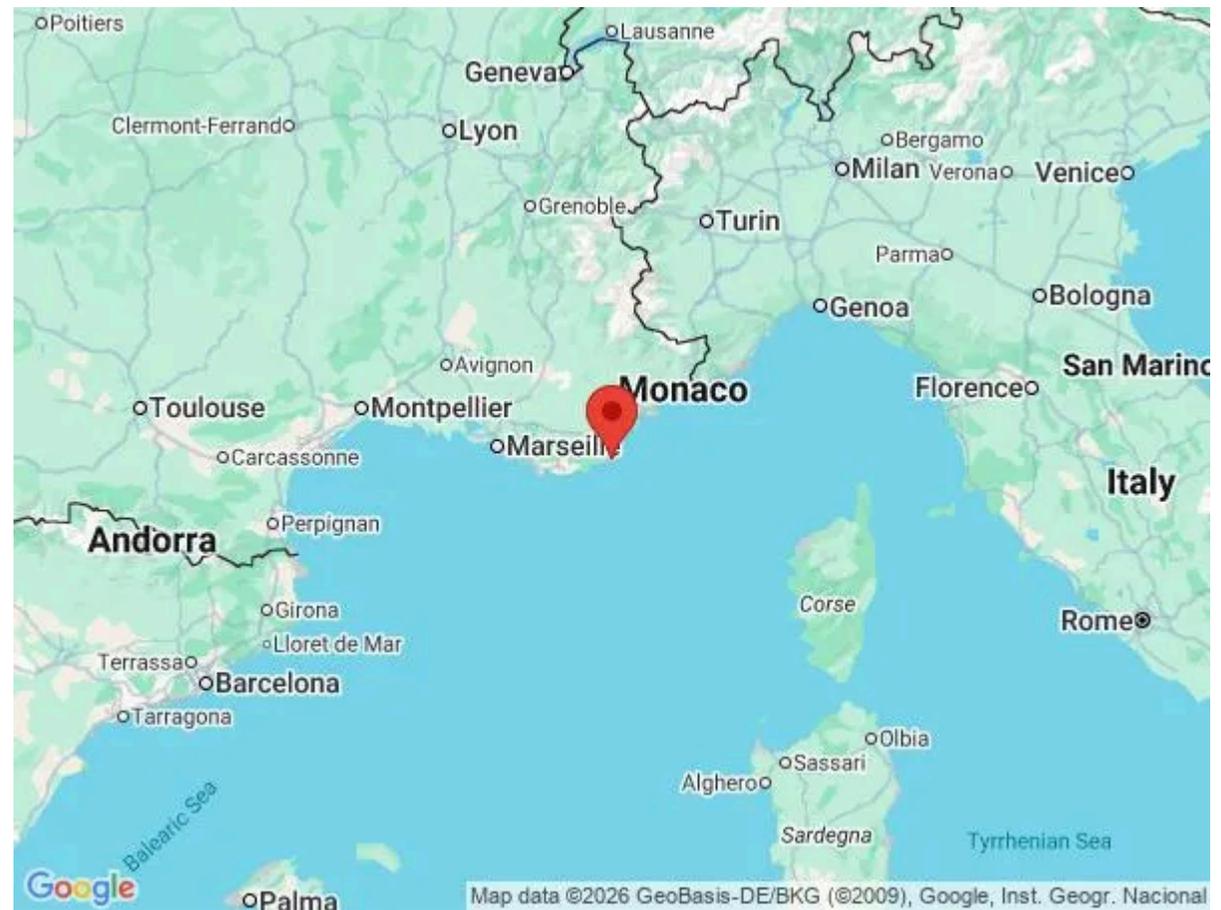

The nearest airports for commercial airlines are Toulon Hyères (59km) and Nice (119km) whilst private planes can arrive at Saint-Tropez's international airport near La Môle (24km). The nearest main train station is Les Arcs-Draguignan (50km) with arrivals from Paris, Toulon, Nice and Marseille.

Plage de l'Escalet (2km) is a pretty little bay with clear water ideal for snorkelling and swimming – there are also seasonal canoeing opportunities and fantastic coastal hiking paths. Head there early in July and August as it's a popular part of the coastline. There is usually a kiosk for drinks and snacks open in the height of the summer, otherwise the nearest supermarket is just over five minutes by car.

Restaurants can be found in the charming hilltop village of Ramatuelle (6km). It is such a lovely village to spend time in – explore its flower-filled lanes and admire glorious views of the coast below. Visit the bustling little market on a Thursday and Sunday morning as well as the village's marché nocturne on Wednesday evenings in July and August. Furthermore, a jazz festival takes place in June and there are other vibrant festivities during the year.

The southern end of Plage de Pampelonne (6.5km) is just over a 10-minute drive away, summer traffic dependent. This long stretch of sandy beach attracts visitors from across the world for its fantastic watersports and exclusive beach clubs including Le Club 55 (9km) and Nikki Beach Saint-Tropez (8km).

Further north is Saint-Tropez (13km), a wonderful day out with its old quarter, impressive marina, boutiques, bars and high-end restaurants as well as the authentic twice-weekly market on Place des Lices. There are boat excursions and passenger ferries from the marina or, for a truly amazing experience, charter a yacht for a day out touring the French Riviera.

Other villages not to be missed include La Croix Valmer (13km) with its vineyards, close to the picture-perfect beaches of Plage de Gigaro and Plage de Sylvabelle. In the other direction is hilltop Gassin (13km), classified as one of France's official 'Plus Beaux Villages'; and flower-filled Grimaud (19km) on the edge of the Maures hills and forest.
