

Villa Ceci

Region: French Riviera (Cote D'Azur) Sleeps: 10

Overview

If you are yearning to experience the Côte d'Azur from a bygone era, embrace the vintage elegance of Villa Ceci located just a 5-minute drive from hilltop Ramatuelle, close to Saint-Tropez.

Sleeping 10 guests across its five en suite bedrooms, there's a refined ambience throughout this French Riviera residence with stylish furnishings and classic, sometimes eclectic, décor. The living room windows frame the gorgeous vista and the traditional kitchen leads through to a charming summer dining room looking out towards the magnificent garden and scenery beyond. The house is filled with objets d'art adding to its character and charm. There is also a fitness room with a view!

Admire countryside vistas from the heated swimming pool – it feels like your own corner of Mediterranean paradise with the colours and scents of the region all around you. The chic poolside bar awaits, an idyllic spot to enjoy a chilled glass of wine perhaps sourced from La Croix Valmer's vineyards, whilst there are other beautiful terraces overlooking the glorious garden filled with olive trees and umbrella pines.

Ramatuelle is just a short drive away, a hilltop village so loved for its flower-filled lanes filled with restaurants, art galleries and little shops. In the other direction is Plage de Pampelonne, one of southern France's most iconic beaches, home to exclusive beach clubs and excellent watersport opportunities.

Saint-Tropez itself is less than 10km away, the perfect place to charter a yacht for a day out exploring the French Riviera coastline. When you return to the former fishing village, take time to explore its old quarter with boutiques, upmarket restaurants, little squares and more art galleries.

Don't miss the twice-weekly Provençal market at Place des Lices for a range of Provençal delights.

Location & Local Information

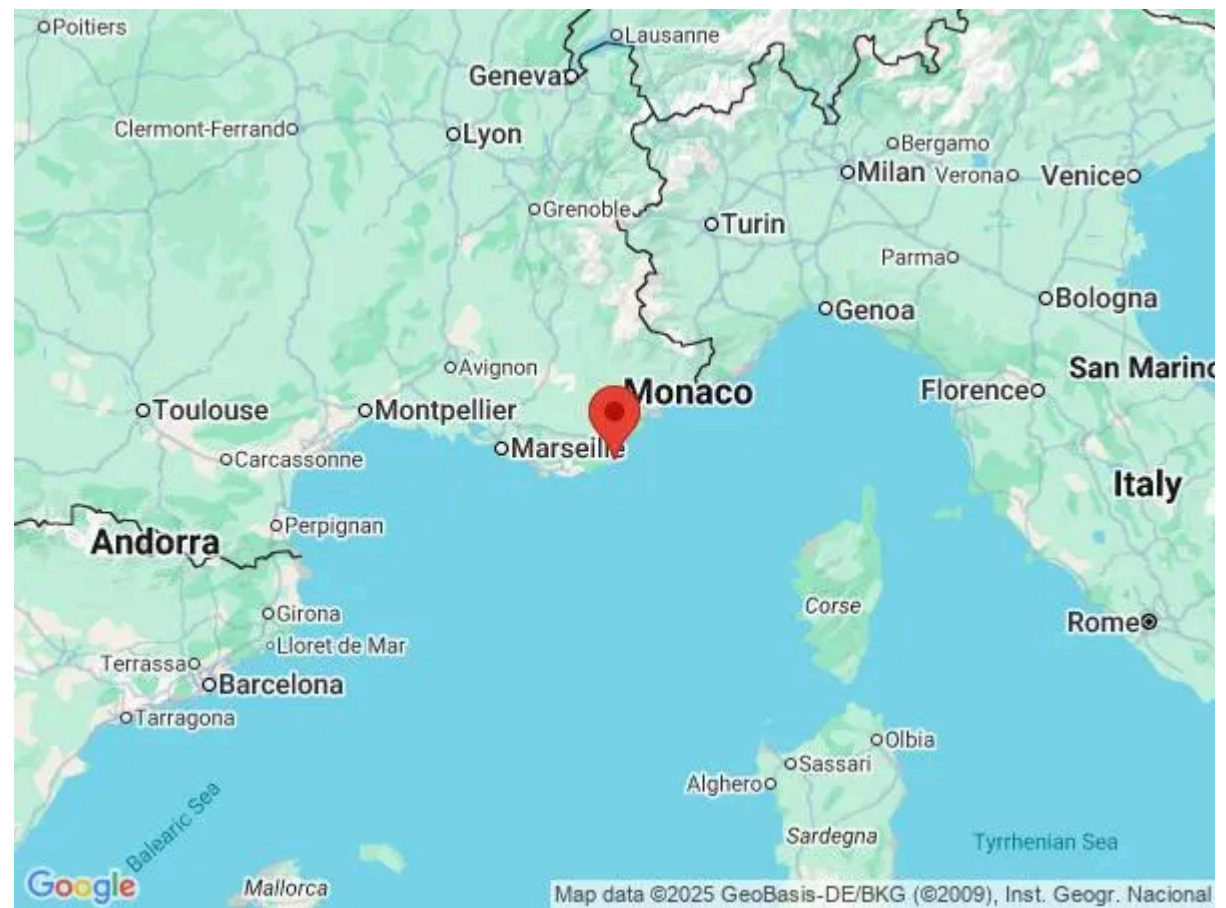

In a beautiful setting just outside the hilltop village of Ramatuelle, Villa Ceci is a 10-minute drive from Pampelonne Beach and just under 10km from the heart of Saint-Tropez. This is a fine location for experiencing the glamour of Saint-Tropez alongside some of the French Riviera's authentic villages and incredible coastline.

Ramatuelle is just a 5-minute drive away and enjoys gorgeous vistas of the Mediterranean from its perched position. It's a historic village exuding immense charm with its bougainvillea-clad stone houses, narrow lanes, little art galleries and inviting restaurants. There's a delightful market on a Thursday and Sunday morning as well as a weekly marché nocturne in the height of the summer. Furthermore, look out for Ramatuelle's much-loved jazz festival in June.

Down by the coast, Plage de Pampelonne (6km) is one of the French Riviera's iconic beaches with its long sandy shores, exclusive beach clubs (Le Club 55 and Nikki Beach, for example) and fantastic range of summer watersports. If you prefer more idyllic bays, drive down to Plage de l'Escalet (5km) for canoeing, scuba-diving and glorious coastal walks – head down early in the summer as it is a popular beach.

La Croix Valmer offers hiking along the coast as well as picture-perfect beaches such as Plage de Gigaro (12km) and Plage d'Héraclée (11km). Wine-lovers should visit the vineyards around the village of La Croix Valmer (8km) – there are also excellent wines produced near Ramatuelle and Saint-Tropez.

The former fishing village of Saint-Tropez (10km) is one of southern France's most famous destinations. Potter around the old quarter with its boutiques and upmarket restaurants alongside pretty squares and art galleries, pick up a wealth of Provençal produce at the twice-weekly market at Place des Lices and admire the boats in the marina. There is a great choice of summer boat excursions or you can charter your very own yacht for a brilliant day out.
