

Bastide Renard

Region: French Riviera (Cote D'Azur) Sleeps: 12

Overview

Bastide Renard is for guests seeking the allure of Saint-Tropez whilst also wishing to experience the authenticity of southern France, just a short walk from the pretty bay of Plage de l'Escalet.

Soak up the rustic elegance of this beautiful holiday home which has been designed with high-end charm and grace. The high-ceilinged lounge and dining room invites you to spend convivial time with family and friends and there are gorgeous arched windows opening out to the terrace and garden. The traditional Provençal kitchen is perfect for keen cooks or hire a chef to prepare feasts to serve by candlelight on the covered terrace. The villa sleeps up to 12 guests across its six bedrooms, all delightfully appointed with queen, king or super king-sized doubles alongside five pretty bathrooms.

It's idyllic to relax beneath the vine-clad arbour with a glass of Provençal rosé on a warm summers evening as you listen out to loved ones splashing around the heated swimming pool. Admire trailing bougainvillea, jasmine, terracotta pots of summer flowers, olive trees and majestic pines across the vast garden, knowing you are so close to the Mediterranean.

Indeed, the pretty bay at Plage de l'Escalet is around 15 minutes away passing more towering pines as you walk down the hill. Head there early in the summer and make the most of the clear water for swimming, snorkelling and kayaking. Follow the coastal hiking path and come across other little bays and yet more beautiful scenery.

You are also well located for Plage de Pampelonne for its exclusive beach clubs and vast range of summer watersports or you may prefer the wilder coastline around Plage de Gigaro, not far from the vineyards of La Croix Valmer.

Enjoy the restaurants, art galleries and markets of picture-perfect Ramatuelle, a perched village around 5km away, or head straight for Saint-Tropez to experience its glamorous vibe and rich heritage – no wonder the former fishing village is now one of France's most iconic destinations.

Location & Local Information

Set in a beautiful garden, Bastide Fox is around a 15-minute walk or short drive from the picturesque bay at Plage de l'Escalet, 11km from Saint-Tropez and just over an hour from Toulon Hyères Airport. Saint-Tropez also has its own international airport for private arrivals 22km away.

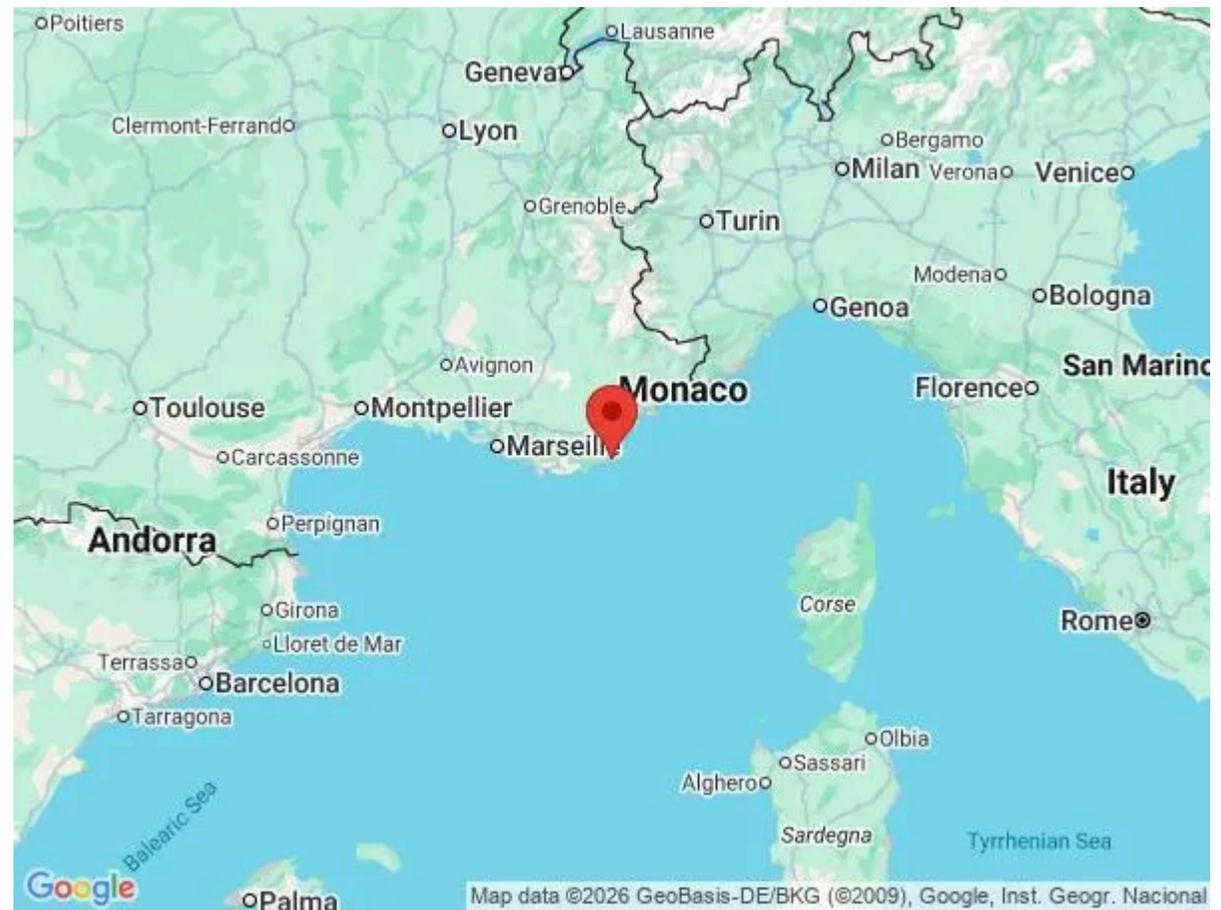

Walking down the hilly road (no pavement) passing pine trees you will reach the pretty sheltered bay in around 15 minutes or it is a very short drive (head there early to get a parking space in the height of the summer). Discover gorgeous clear sea for swimming and snorkelling, seasonal canoeing/kayaking and in July/August there is usually a little kiosk for drinks and snacks. Meanwhile, a good-sized supermarket is only 2.5km away by car.

This is a wonderful region for keen walkers - a coastal path from Plage de l'Escalet leads past idyllic little coves towards Cap Taillat and there are more fantastic hikes around La Croix Valmer's coastline, a short drive away, alongside picture-perfect sandy beaches including Plage de Gigaro and Plage d'Héraclée (11km).

Heading north instead, the iconic Plage de Pampelonne (5km) awaits with its long sandy shores and summer watersports. Soak up the glamorous vibe at one of the exclusive beach clubs such as Le Club 55 (7km), so loved by Brigitte Bardot in the 1960s.

Visit the perched village of Ramatuelle (5km) for lovely restaurants and art galleries across its flower-filled lanes. Potter around the charming Provençal market on a Thursday and Sunday morning and look out for the atmospheric marché nocturne once a week in the height of the summer. Gassin (10km) and Grimaud (18km) are two other hilltop gems, all enchanting villages with glorious views of Mediterranean below.

Of course, one of the greatest draws of this region is Saint-Tropez, a former fishing village and now one of France's most famous destinations. Wander around the medieval lanes, experience the bustling twice-weekly market, admire the colourful houses by the harbourfront and be impressed by the marina with its huge yachts. Boat trips will whisk you away to tour the French Riviera coast whilst ferries connect you to other delightful seaside towns including Port Grimaud (the 'Venice of Provence') and Sainte-Maxime.
