

Mas Saint Blaise

Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 14

Overview

Play tennis overlooking a vineyard then cool off in your private swimming pool before retiring for a glass of Luberon AOC on the al-fresco lounge. This elegant Provençal mas is set in tranquil landscapes offering enchanting views towards the perched village of Oppède le Vieux, ideally located for visiting Ménerbes, Gordes, Avignon and other gems of Provence.

Sleeping 14 guests, Mas Saint Blaise has been sensitively yet stylishly renovated by its meticulous owners who have a great eye for detail. Interiors are chic and uncluttered allowing you to appreciate both traditional features and graceful design. The main farmhouse features six elegant bedrooms (one twin and five with queen-size double beds), all with contemporary en suite bathrooms. There is also a charming annexe with its own lounge and kitchenette alongside a mezzanine-style double. Other features across the home include Wi-Fi, a Smart TV and underfloor cooling/heating.

The garden is idyllic with all the scents and sights of Provence and pretty terraces to soak up the tranquil surroundings. The swimming pool can be heated on request (for a supplement) and features a gorgeous terrace with sun loungers whilst the outdoor lounge is the perfect spot to escape the warm summer sun. Beyond your private garden and swimming pool, explore the wider estate and come across roses, wisteria, cypress trees, pines and more glorious scenery. The tennis court is another wonderful addition – imagine playing on balmy evenings as the sun sets behind the hills.

There is a bakery, épicerie and a small handful of places to eat just over 2km away whilst even closer is hilltop Oppède le Vieux - be captivated by the medieval village's historic charm as you explore its narrow lanes and admire the incredible Luberon vistas. Ménerbes is just over 5 minutes by car, one of France's 'Plus Beaux Villages' made famous by Peter Mayle's 'A Year in Provence' whilst other jewels of the Luberon include Gordes, Bonnieux and Roussillon. Meanwhile, cycle or hike past cherry orchards, poppy and lavender fields, forest and vineyards and try some of the Luberon's excellent wines.

Elsewhere in southern France, try the summer melons of Cavaillon, potter around the markets of L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue, canoe along the Sorgue from Fontaine-de-Vaucluse, pass olive groves en route to Les Baux-de-Provence and visit the art galleries of Saint-Rémy. Not to mention day trips such as Avignon and Aix-en-Provence for yet more fantastic experiences before returning to the serene ambience of your gorgeous Luberon farmhouse.

Location & Local Information

Mas Saint Blaise is reached via a beautiful driveway lined with cypress trees and surrounded by vineyards, located below the perched village of Oppède le Vieux in the captivating Luberon region of Provence. Fly into Avignon or Marseille Airport or take the fast train service from Paris to Gare d'Avignon TGV.

Oppède le Vieux is just 1km away – park just outside the centre and walk up the hill. Once you arrive, the medieval village will enchant you as you potter around its steep cobbled lanes and admire the most incredible landscapes around you. The once abandoned village came back to life after WWII when artists and writers took over empty houses and renovated them. Walk up towards Église Notre-Dame Dalidon for more spectacular scenery before rewarding yourself with lunch on the village square.

Meanwhile, there are a couple more places to eat in the lower part of Oppède (around 2km by car) alongside a boulangerie and épicerie for groceries. The nearest supermarkets are in and around Coustellet (7km) as well as some great artisan shops, a lavender museum and a lovely Sunday morning Farmer's market.

Hilltop Ménerbes (4.5km) is yet another gem of the region, classified as one of France's 'Plus Beaux Villages'. Surrounded by vineyards and cherry orchards, the picturesque village was made especially famous by Peter Mayle's 'A Year in Provence' and it is loved for its historic charm.

Other iconic perched villages of the Luberon include Gordes (13km), Roussillon (18km) and Bonnieux (16.5km), then there's the historic town of Apt (22km) which hosts the region's largest market on a Saturday morning. Nature lovers will adore the Luberon's many cycling trails and hiking paths passing rivers, poppy fields, vineyards, orchards, lavender and woodland. There are also ample wine tasting opportunities across the region.

Beyond the Luberon, visit the antique stores and markets of L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue (17km), appreciate the natural beauty of Fontaine-de-Vaucluse (17km) or head towards Les Alpilles for art galleries in Saint-Rémy-de-Provence (32km), olive oil in Maussane-les-Alpilles (42km) and celebrity spotting in Eygalières (26km), perhaps stopping off in historic Cavaillon (12.5km) en route, famed for its delicious summer melons.
