What we love

- Nestled in scenic Puglia, this 3-bedroom villa boasts modern amenities and traditional charm.
- Close proximity to historic towns like Ceglie Messapica and Ostuni.
- Ideal for exploring Puglia's renowned beaches and culinary delights.

What you should know...

- The villa features traditional stone flooring, which can be uneven; guests should take care to avoid tripping.
- The property is rural and remote, so having a car is essential for convenient travel.
- The walls are crafted from natural materials and therefore are delicate. Kindly handle the glass doors in the bathrooms and hammam gently. Our furniture, although refurbished, retains a classic elegance and should be treated with care.
- Villa Mandorli sleeps 6 guests in 3 double bedrooms. An additional 4 guests can be accommodated on the two sofa beds in the living room and on extra beds that can be arranged in the bedrooms at an extra cost, please enquire for more details.
