Villa Haris

Region: Kalyves Sleeps: 8

Overview

Nestled on a sprawling plot, this exquisite 190-square-meter villa offers a breathtaking panorama that captures the sparkling azure expanse of Souda Bay and the majestic mountains serving as a picturesque backdrop. Villa Haris is a harmonious blend of comfort and elegance, boasting four spacious bedrooms. Three of these come with their own en-suite shower rooms, ensuring privacy and luxury, while an additional family bathroom caters to all.

The heart of the villa is an open-plan space that seamlessly combines a fully equipped kitchen, a cosy lounge, and an inviting dining area, perfect for gatherings. Step outside, and you'll find an expansive outdoor kitchen and a covered BBQ area, ideal for alfresco dining and entertaining. For guests who enjoy staying active, the villa features its own private pickleball court, perfect for a friendly match with family or friends while taking in the stunning views.

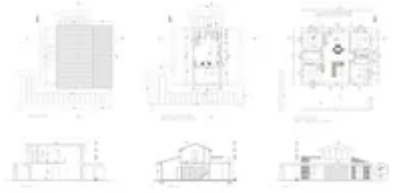

The pièce de résistance is the stunning 75-square-meter infinity pool, offering a serene spot to unwind while soaking in the uninterrupted sea views. Surrounding the villa are multiple secluded areas designed for relaxation, each providing a unique perspective of the lush surroundings.

The meticulously landscaped gardens feature a delightful mix of planters brimming with vibrant trees and plants, complemented by a well-maintained lawn. Close to the road, an olive grove and citrus trees add a touch of Mediterranean charm to the property. Every corner of this villa is thoughtfully designed to offer tranquillity and beauty, making it a perfect retreat.

Location & Local Information

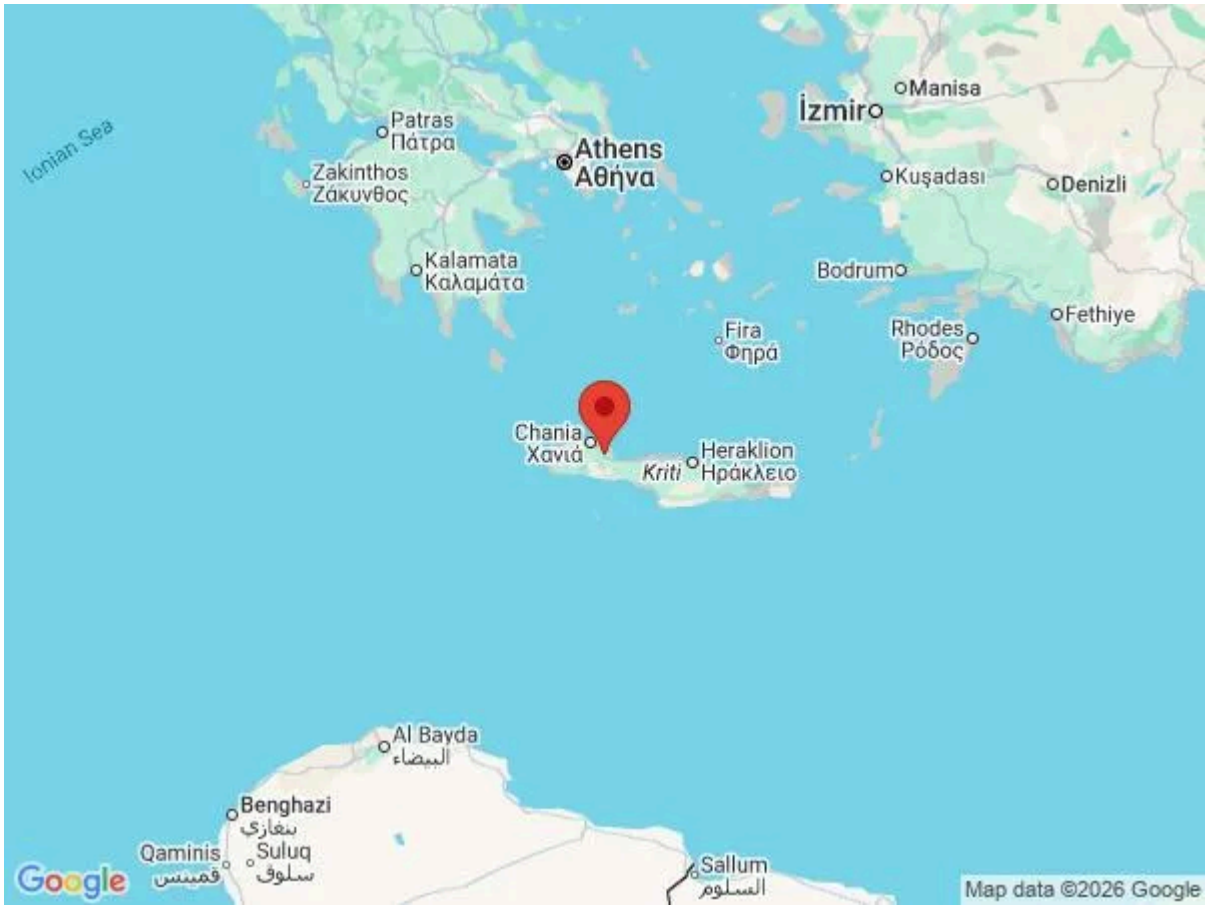

Located in Vamos, a picturesque village situated in the Apokoronas region of Chania, on the island of Crete, Greece. Nestled amid rolling hills and olive groves, Vamos offers a serene escape with its blend of traditional Cretan architecture and rustic charm. The village is renowned for its well-preserved stone houses, narrow winding streets, and a vibrant local culture that celebrates Cretan heritage.

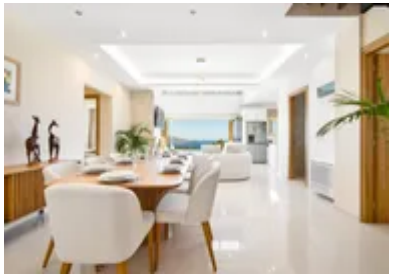

Key attractions include the village's historical centre, which features a variety of cafes, tavernas, and artisan shops, as well as its proximity to natural attractions like the White Mountains (Lefka Ori) and the beautiful beaches of Almyrida and Georgioupolis. Visitors to Vamos can enjoy engaging activities such as hiking, local wine tasting, and traditional cooking classes. The town's emphasis on eco-tourism and sustainable living makes it a unique and appealing destination for those looking to experience the authentic side of Crete.

A short drive will take you to Chania, the second-largest city on the Greek island of Crete, is a captivating blend of historical richness and natural beauty. It boasts a picturesque Venetian harbour lined with colourful buildings, reflecting its diverse cultural influences from the Venetian, Ottoman, and Greek periods. The old town's narrow, winding streets are a treasure trove of quaint shops, charming cafes, and ancient architecture, including the iconic Lighthouse and the Mosque of the Janissaries.
