Region: Provence-Alpes    Sleeps: 10

Overview

This traditional Luberon mas dates back to the 18th century and is surrounded by olive groves and vineyards – the views are especially lovely from the swimming pool. It's great to be able to follow the footpath behind the farmhouse to the restaurants, bakery and épicerie of nearby Oppède whilst you are less than a 10-minute drive from Ménerbes, classified as one of France's 'Plus Beaux Villages'.

There are glorious views in every direction from this charming holiday home – with east, west and south-facing terraces, there is always somewhere to sit out in the sun or seek the shade. We particularly love the pergola on the upper level of the garden overlooking the swimming pool and vines beyond, such a picturesque spot for al-fresco dining.

Inside, the house has been sensitively restored and still retains so much character. The upper level is home to the lounge, kitchen and dining area with doors leading out to the pergola and terrace. High ceilings and great wood beams contrast a mix of modern and classic furnishings whilst the contemporary kitchen is impressive. There are two en suite bedrooms on this level – one with a four-poster double bed, the other a pretty twin.

On the lower level you will find two further bedrooms (a double and twin) sharing a bathroom. The fifth bedroom is quite unique with its own independent entrance from the courtyard. Sleep beneath the vaulted ceiling of this double bedroom and admire the marble bathroom dating back to the 1930s. Out in the courtyard, sit back for an apéritif on a warm summers evening, lovingly prepared in the handy little kitchen here.

The house is located just off the road connecting

Ménerbes and Cavaillon, meaning easy access to so many gems of the Luberon. Follow Peter Mayle's footsteps in Ménerbes, the village he so loved, and dine out on a restaurant terrace overlooking orchards and vines so typical of this part of Provence. Step back in time as you stroll through Oppède le Vieux, then soak up the historic charm of other iconic perched villages such as Gordes, Roussillon and Bonnieux.

Follow walking, hiking and cycling routes passing poppy fields, lavender, cherry trees and endless vines. Indeed, there are so many wine-tasting opportunities across the Luberon and beyond as well as lovely markets and high-end restaurants (some with Michelin stars) – just some of the many wonderful experiences of Provence.

Location & Local Information

Villa Royere is in the Luberon region of Provence, a very short drive from Ménerbes, Oppède le Vieux and Coustellet. Arrive by plane into Avignon, Marseille or Nimes Airport or take the fast train from Paris to Gare d'Avignon TGV (37km) in just 2 hours 40 minutes.

Within 5 acres of grounds with vineyards and olive trees, the house is set off the road between Cavaillon and Ménerbes. A footpath behind the farmhouse leads to the 'newer' part of Oppède in about 15 minutes with its bakery, épicerie, tennis courts and a couple of restaurants (or it's just a 5-minute drive/bike ride). There are even more food shops in Coustellet (5km) including two supermarkets and a lovely Sunday morning Farmer's market.

When it comes to exploring the Luberon, start off in hilltop Ménerbes (4km), officially classified as one of France's 'Plus Beaux Villages' and so loved in Peter Mayle's 'A Year in Provence'. Come across charming little shops along the narrow lanes and restaurants with terraces with incredible views overlooking orchards and vines. The pretty market takes place on a Thursday morning.

The perched village of Oppède le Vieux (4.5km) is another gem of the area – it's like a step back in time as you explore the medieval lanes and admire stunning vistas of the surrounding landscapes. There are some great walks and hikes from the village.

Other iconic hilltop villages across the Luberon include Gordes (10km), Lacoste (11km) and Bonnieux (15km), all with so much historic charm and beauty. Elsewhere, taste the cherries from Saint-Saturnin-lès-Apt, the melons of Cavaillon, the lavender ice-cream of Roussillon and experience the Saturday morning market in Apt. Not to mention a wealth of high-end restaurants including Michelin starred establishments in places such as Lourmarin, Cucuron and Ansouis.

There are of course wonderful walking trails, cycling routes, horse-riding as well as canoeing and kayaking along the Durance and Sorgue rivers. Beyond the Luberon, seek out antiques in L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue (15km), visit the evening Farmer's market in Velleron (22km), discover the fountains of Pernes-les-Fontaines (24km), the cycling routes of Mont Ventoux from Bédoin (42km) and the UNESCO World Heritage sites of Avignon (35km).
