

Dimora Monnalisa

Region: Tuscany Sleeps: 12

Overview

Set amidst the breathtaking landscape of Tuscany's Chianti region, this luxurious 6-bedroom villa offers an unforgettable retreat for up to 12 guests. Steeped in history, the 11th-century stone manor house exudes aristocratic charm, surrounded by three hectares of meticulously landscaped gardens, rolling hills, vineyards, and olive groves.

The villa's interior combines historic elegance with modern comforts. The spacious living area is perfect for gatherings, featuring plush sofas and a grand stonework fireplace that has been a centerpiece for generations. Next to the pool a brand new gym overlooking the vineyards has been recently added.

The villa boasts five beautifully appointed bedrooms in the main house, each with an ensuite bathroom. On the first floor, four double bedrooms offer both luxury and comfort, with one room featuring two twin beds and a charming mezzanine bathroom. The ground floor houses an additional double bedroom.

The separate granary guest house provides a peaceful retreat with a double-height beamed living area, a cosy kitchen, and a comfortable bathroom. The mezzanine level holds a double bedroom, making it an ideal space for a couple seeking privacy or for grandparents to relax.

Outside, the villa is a true paradise. The country garden offers serene, relaxing spots with shaded patios, lush lawns, and a tranquil wooded area providing refuge from the midday sun. The large private pool and sun terrace are set against the backdrop of the stunning Tuscan countryside, where the only sounds are the breeze in the cypress trees and the clinking of glasses.

Located near the charming town of Greve, this villa is perfectly positioned for exploring Tuscany's rich cultural heritage. This enchanting villa offers an idyllic setting for family gatherings, special celebrations, or simply a peaceful escape into the beauty of Tuscany.

Location & Local Information

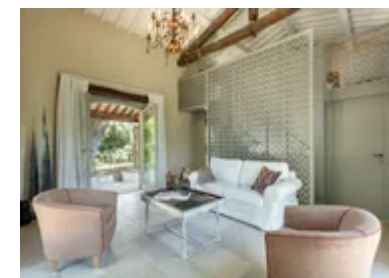

Dimora Monnalisa is ideally located in the heart of Tuscany's renowned Chianti region, offering a perfect base to explore the area's rich history, culture, and natural beauty. Nearby, Greve, the gateway to Chianti, is a charming town known for its bustling Piazza Matteotti, a triangular square surrounded by arcades and local shops. Visitors can explore the weekly market, sample Tuscan delicacies like pecorino cheese and cured meats, and visit the Wine Museum to learn about Chianti's rich winemaking history.

This stunning location offers panoramic views of vineyards, olive groves, and cypress-lined roads that are quintessentially Tuscan. Wine lovers will delight in visiting local vineyards for tours and tastings while food enthusiasts can savour traditional Tuscan cuisine in nearby trattorias. Dishes like ribollita, pappa al pomodoro, and the famous bistecca alla fiorentina are local favourites.

A short drive from Dimora Monnalisa, the cities of Florence and Pisa offer world-class art, architecture, and culture. With its iconic Duomo, Uffizi Gallery, and Ponte Vecchio, Florence is a treasure trove of Renaissance art and history. With its famous Leaning Tower, Pisa offers another perspective on Tuscany's rich architectural heritage.
