Villa Arturri

Region: Ruka Sleeps: 6

Overview

Villa Arturri is a welcoming haven in the heart of Ruka's serene landscape on Lake Vuosselijärvi. This cosy semi-detached log house exudes a homely charm, offering a perfect retreat for families and friends seeking a peaceful holiday escape.

Upon entering Villa Arturri, you are greeted by warmth and comfort, designed to accommodate up to six guests. Three bedrooms offer ample space for a good night's rest after a day of exploring. Bedroom setups include a master bedroom with a double bed and two additional bedrooms, each furnished with two single beds. For added convenience, amenities such as TVs in select bedrooms ensure entertainment options for all.

The open-plan kitchen, living, and dining area with a wood-burning fireplace adds a touch of cosiness, perfect for warming up during chilly evenings. Underfloor heating throughout the villa ensures comfort is maintained throughout your stay. For those who appreciate relaxation and Finnish tradition, an electric-heated sauna awaits. It provides the ideal retreat after a day of skiing or hiking.

Outside, Villa Arturri continues to impress with its natural surroundings. A lean-to shelter and campfire place by the lakeshore invites guests to unwind and enjoy the stunning views. Whether it's roasting sausages over a crackling fire or simply basking in the peaceful ambience, these outdoor spaces promise memorable moments with loved ones.

For winter enthusiasts, the proximity to Ruka's slopes and cross-country ski tracks ensures easy access to a variety of snowy adventures. Whether you are unwinding by the fire or exploring the pristine surroundings, every moment spent here promises a refreshing escape from the bustle of everyday life.
