Villa Eki

Region: Ruka Sleeps: 8

Overview

Nestled along the serene shores of Lake Vuosselinjärvi, Villa Eki offers a cosy retreat in the heart of nature. This charming deadwood chalet, built in 2000 and beautifully renovated in 2014, effortlessly blends rustic charm with modern comfort. With its stunning location and year-round availability, Villa Eki promises a delightful escape from the hustle and bustle of daily life.

Stepping into the chalet, you are welcomed by the warmth of the wood-burning fireplace in the lounge, creating a homely atmosphere perfect for relaxation. The lounge, equipped with a flat-screen TV and a home theatre system, is an ideal spot for unwinding after a day of outdoor adventures. The chalet's layout is thoughtfully designed, offering two comfortable bedrooms downstairs. The first bedroom features a snug double bed, while the second room has two cosy single beds. Upstairs, the loft provides ample sleeping space with four additional beds and another TV, making it perfect for children or extra guests. The chalet also includes a rejuvenating sauna.

Moving outside, the natural beauty of the surroundings is truly captivating. The chalet boasts a spacious terrace with a barbecue area, perfect for summer evenings spent dining al fresco. For those who enjoy a touch of adventure, two bicycles with helmets are available, allowing you to explore the scenic trails around the lake. Down by the lake, a separate barbecue hut invites you to enjoy lakeside meals while the deck and boat offer endless opportunities for summer fun on the water. Whether you fancy a leisurely boat ride or simply soaking up the sun on the deck, the lakeshore is a haven of tranquillity.

Location & Local Information

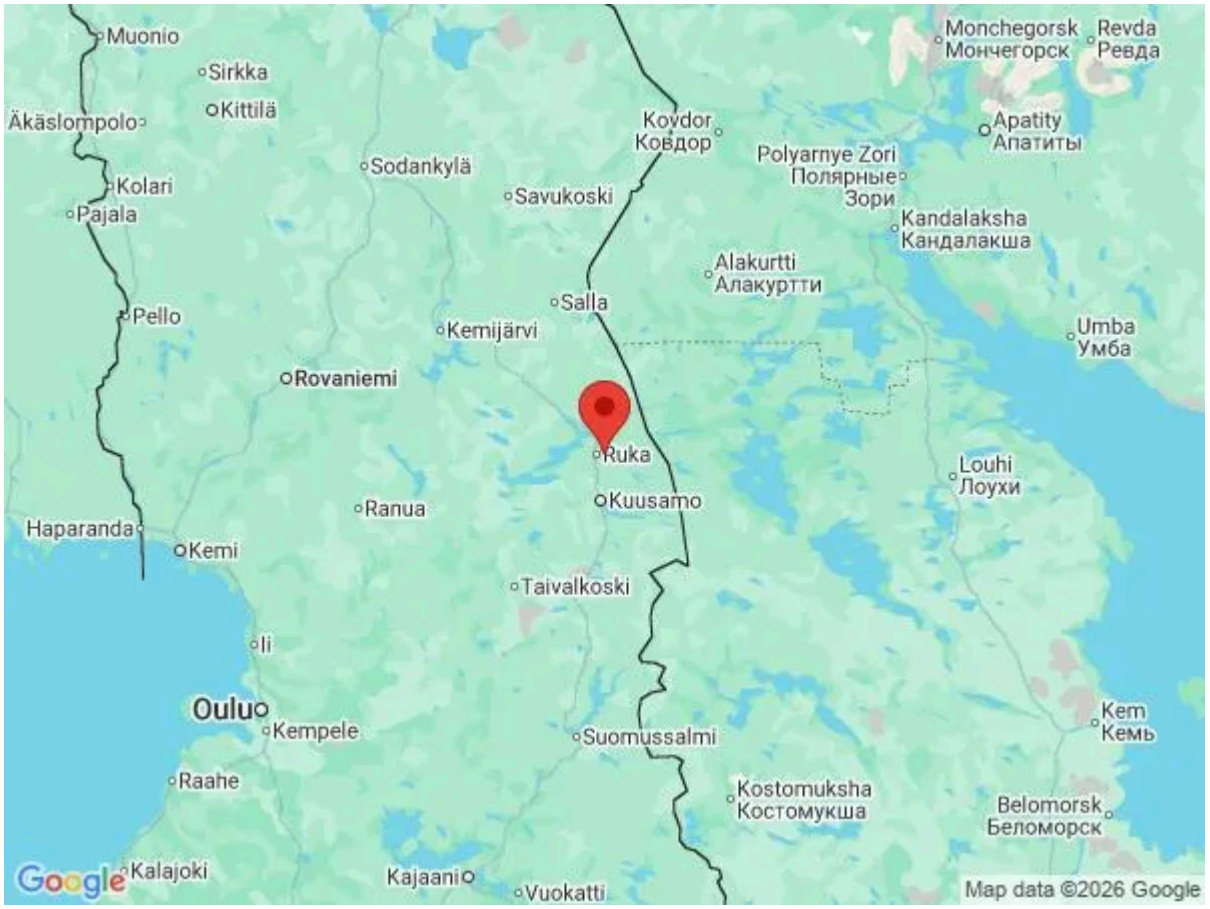

Villa Eki is situated on the picturesque shores of Lake Vuosselinjärvi, an idyllic location that serves as a perfect holiday destination for nature enthusiasts and those seeking tranquillity. Nestled in the heart of Finland, this region is renowned for its pristine natural beauty, offering an array of outdoor activities across all seasons.

In summer, the clear waters of Lake Vuosselinjärvi beckon for swimming, fishing, and boating, with a deck and boat available for guests to enjoy leisurely days on the lake. The surrounding forests and trails are ideal for hiking and cycling, with two bicycles provided for guests. The area transforms in winter, becoming a snowy wonderland perfect for skiing, snowshoeing, and other winter sports.

The region's unspoiled environment provides a rich habitat for wildlife, making it a great spot for birdwatching and nature photography. The peacefulness of the location, combined with the chalet's proximity to the lake, makes Villa Eki an excellent retreat for relaxation and rejuvenation. Additionally, the area offers a unique opportunity to experience the Northern Lights, providing a magical backdrop for your holiday.
