Minotaro Lodge

Region: Calabria Sleeps: 4

Overview

Minotaro Lodge is a charming two-bedroom villa in Calabria that comfortably sleeps four guests. It offers a perfect blend of comfort and rustic charm. The villa features a cosy layout with a welcoming living area tastefully furnished with traditional décor and modern touches. The fully equipped kitchen allows guests to prepare meals easily, and the dining area is perfect for enjoying them together.

The two bedrooms are thoughtfully designed, with comfortable beds, ample storage, and large windows that let in plenty of natural light. One bedroom offers a double bed, while the other provides two single beds, ideal for families or small groups of friends. The bathroom is modern and well-appointed, featuring a shower and all necessary amenities.

Outside, the villa boasts a spacious garden with lush greenery, Mediterranean plants, and a private swimming pool. Guests can enjoy meals al fresco on the outdoor patio, complete with a dining area and barbecue facilities.

Located in a quiet area of Calabria, Minotaro Lodge is close to beautiful beaches and scenic walking trails. The surrounding area offers opportunities to explore traditional villages, indulge in local cuisine, and soak in the breathtaking natural landscapes of the region.

Location & Local Information

Minotaro Lodge is nestled near the stunning Tyrrhenian Sea in the scenic region of Calabria, Italy. This charming holiday destination offers visitors natural beauty, cultural heritage, and authentic Italian experiences.

Tropea, just a short drive from Minotaro Lodge, is a picturesque town perched on cliffs above the sea. Wander through Tropea's charming old town with its narrow streets, ancient buildings, and small squares. Visit the Norman Cathedral and Santa Maria dell'Isola Church, perched dramatically on a cliff. Sample the famous "Cipolla Rossa di Tropea" (sweet red onions) in various dishes, and browse local markets for souvenirs, from pottery to traditional food products.

Capo Vaticano is famous for its breathtaking views and dramatic cliffs overlooking the Tyrrhenian Sea. The area is also known for pristine beaches like Grotticelle Beach, where you can swim in turquoise waters, snorkel, or simply relax on the white sand. On a clear day, hike to the Capo Vaticano lighthouse for panoramic views of the coastline, the Aeolian Islands, and Mount Etna.

Calabria is known for its rich culinary traditions, with local delicacies such as 'nduja (spicy spreadable sausage), fresh seafood, and Calabrian wines. Visitors can explore traditional markets and try authentic dishes at local trattorias.

What we love

- Enjoy a private garden with lush greenery, perfect for outdoor relaxation and dining al fresco.
- The villa accommodates four guests, with double and twin bedrooms ideal for families or small groups.
- Located near beautiful Calabrian beaches and scenic walking trails, offering easy access to nature and relaxation.

What you should know...

- The cottage, part of a spacious and beautiful property, offers a private retreat and is rented exclusively when the main villa is unoccupied. Guests also have access to the on-site tennis court, ensuring plenty of recreational options during their stay.
- While there is no air conditioning, the villa is equipped with ceiling fans, which provide a refreshing breeze and help maintain a comfortable temperature throughout your stay.
- While the owner's villa is on the same grounds, the property is rented exclusively when they are away, ensuring that the house and pool are private for guests to enjoy.
- The roads leading to the villa are narrow and steep. A car is highly recommended to explore the local area.
