Overview

Just outside the enchanting city of Lecce, Casa La Gioia offers a harmonious retreat. As you approach the villa, the surroundings of ancient Salento beckon you with their allure—five hectares of lush greenery, centuries-old olive trees, and vibrant aromatic plants set the scene for your stay. Nature and beauty are the guiding elements, gently encouraging you to leave behind the bustle of daily life and embrace a slower, more mindful rhythm.

Each of the twelve rooms is a unique space, thoughtfully designed to reflect the colours of the chakras and furnished with pieces sourced from around the globe. The diverse décor invites you on a journey across continents, awakening the dreamer within you. Some rooms offer private jacuzzis and terraces with four-poster beds, perfect for quiet reflection under the stars. The interiors blend the rustic charm of Salento with a sense of global sophistication, creating an atmosphere that is both welcoming and inspiring.

Wandering through the villa, you discover spaces that invite relaxation and rejuvenation. The Master Spa, housed in the old grape-pressing rooms, offers a serene environment to unwind, while the yoga centre provides a sanctuary for deepening your practice. The library, stocked with books in four languages, is an ideal spot for quiet contemplation, and the rooftop bar beckons for an evening drink as the sun sets over the horizon.

Outside, the gardens of Casa La Gioia are a true feast for the senses. Thematic gardens and sensory paths guide you through a tapestry of scents and sounds, each step bringing you closer to nature. The large swimming pool glistens invitingly, while the volleyball and five-a-side football pitch promises friendly competition. As you stroll through the botanical and synergistic gardens, you can appreciate the commitment to sustainability that underpins the villa's philosophy—here, the earth's bounty is respected and nurtured.
