Overview

Nestled on a street that whispers stories of 19th-century Paris, Apartment Turenne is set in the heart of Marais, one of the city's most iconic neighbourhoods. This two-bedroom apartment, just moments from quaint cobbled lanes and charming boutiques, lets you experience the Paris of a bygone era. Step outside, and grand Parisian facades, nearby cafés, and the hidden gardens of the Marais district welcome you. A short stroll brings you to the beautiful Place des Vosges, Paris' oldest planned square, a picture-perfect spot for a morning coffee or a leisurely afternoon walk.

Entering through a polished hallway accented with hints of greenery, you're immediately drawn into the apartment's inviting living room. With its high, corniced ceilings and stunning parquet floors, this space is quintessentially Parisian, exuding elegance without overstatement. Sunlight streams through a set of tall French doors, illuminating the room and drawing you towards two comfortable leather sofas inviting you to relax. A classic, ornamental fireplace and a vintage bookshelf lend character, making this the ideal setting for an evening of reading or unwinding after a day exploring the city.

The dining area, spacious and classically French, is set against the backdrop of large windows that offer a charming view of the Marais neighbourhood. Here, a traditional bench seat and a giant Persian rug create an ambience that's both welcoming and a touch romantic, perfect for long, lazy meals.

The kitchen retains a delightful rustic charm, embodying a farmhouse feel with vintage furnishings and a cosy breakfast table for four. Fully equipped with everything you need, it's easy to picture leisurely breakfasts here before setting off for a day of Parisian adventures.

The bedrooms are restful spaces designed with understated elegance. The principal bedroom, with its chandelier, decorative fireplace, and a double bed, evokes a sense of timeless grandeur, with bookshelves ready to indulge a quiet evening in. The second bedroom is painted in calming neutral tones, featuring two single beds and ample storage. For additional guests, a snug nook with a double bed offers further sleeping space in a way that feels both cosy and private.

In the bathrooms, gentle hues—mint green in the main bathroom and soothing sky blue in the second—add a refreshing touch. A walk-in shower, bath, and handheld shower provide options for relaxation, complemented by a separate WC for added convenience.

From its charming interiors to its unbeatable location, Apartment Turenne is a delightful retreat, a place where history and modern comfort come together to offer a truly memorable Parisian stay.
