

Villa Vista Verde

Region: Menorca Sleeps: 8

Overview

Located in the heart of Menorca's peaceful countryside, Villa Vista Verde offers a warm, homely retreat with panoramic views stretching towards Mount Toro. Just a short two-minute drive from the charming town of Es Mercadal, this traditional Menorcan farmhouse is the perfect base for exploring the island's unspoilt beaches and local treasures. Whether you are looking to unwind in the tranquil surroundings or head out on adventures, this villa provides the perfect blend of seclusion and convenience.

As you step inside the villa, you are greeted by a spacious reception area that opens onto the main living spaces. The farmhouse exudes character, with its blend of rustic charm and practical comfort. The kitchen, a cosy yet functional space, is well-equipped with modern appliances, from the gas hob and electric oven to the dishwasher and washing machine. It's ideal for those who enjoy cooking, whether it's preparing a family meal or experimenting with local ingredients from nearby markets. The built-in seating around the dining table invites casual meals, while a door leads to an outdoor drying area and the front terrace, offering a seamless indoor-outdoor flow.

Moving into the living and dining area, you'll find comfortable sofas, leather wingback chairs, and a plasma TV for relaxed evenings in. The traditional Menorcan dining table is perfect for gathering over meals, and the space feels both cosy and welcoming. The villa offers four well-appointed bedrooms, each with ceiling fans for added comfort. The master bedroom boasts a king-size bed and en-suite, while the other rooms offer a mix of double and twin options, with generous en-suite or shared bathroom facilities.

Outside, the villa truly shines. The covered terrace in front of the house provides an ideal spot for al fresco dining, with a stunning view over the rolling countryside. Beyond, steps lead to a spacious lawned garden and the large swimming pool, perfect for cooling off on warm days. Whether you are lounging under the pergola or cooking up a feast in the small casita with its barbecue and paella ring, the outdoor space invites long, leisurely days in the sunshine. Villa Vista Verde is a charming, down-to-earth retreat where you can truly unwind and enjoy the beauty of Menorca.
